Physical Dynamics Of Character Structure Bodily Form And Movement In Analytic Therapy:

Physical Dynamics of Character Structure Alexander Lowen, 1958      Drama as Therapy Volume 1 Phil Jones, 2007

Posture & Gesture P. E. Bull, 2016-01-21 This volume presents the results of a series of studies carried out by the author focusing on the role of posture and gesture in interpersonal communication The first section of the book sets these studies in the general context of non verbal communication research in addition previous research on posture and gesture is reviewed in order to highlight the particular issues which were chosen as the focus of research reported here In Part II six experiments are presented concerning the extent to which posture communicates information about listener emotions and attitudes The seven studies reported in Part III are concerned with the relationship between posture gesture and speech The final section summarizes the main findings from the studies presented in this volume discussing their theoretical and practical significance and considering their implications for the way in which research on non verbal communication is carried out      Drama as Therapy Phil Jones, 1996 Drama as Therapy describes and defines dramatherapy providing in one volume a definition of the core processes at work in dramatherapy a clear description of how to structure sessions a thorough review of techniques and a wide range of examples from clinical practice At the heart of the book is a definition of the nine core processes which define how and why dramatherapy can offer the opportunity for change Also included are step by step breakdowns of the ways of working with a broad range of clients Dramatherapy's approach to role play mask ritual performance and script are all described The book includes extensive historical material from the 1920s to the present day covering work in the US the UK Russia and the Netherlands It challenges previous accounts of dramatherapy's history with details of Evreinov's Theatrotherapy Iljine's work in Russia and interviews with innovators in the field including Peter Slade Sue Jennings and Marion Lindqvist      Nonverbal Communication Albert Mehrabian, 2017-07-28 Even though our society subtly discourages the verbal expression of emotions most of us in ostensibly conforming to our roles nevertheless manage to express likes dislikes status differences personalities as well as weaknesses in nonverbal ways Using vocal expressions gestures postures and movements we amplify restrict or deny what our words say to one another and even say some things with greater facility and efficiency than with words In this new multidimensional approach to the subject of nonverbal communication Albert Mehrabian brings together a great deal of original work which includes descriptions of new experimental methods that are especially suited to this field detailed findings of studies scattered throughout the literature and most importantly the integration of these findings within a compact framework The framework starts with the analysis of the meanings of various nonverbal behaviors and is based on the fact that more than half of the variance in the significance of nonverbal signals can be described in terms of the three orthogonal dimensions of positiveness potency or status and responsiveness These three dimensions not only constitute the semantic space for nonverbal communication but also help to identify groups of behaviors relating to each to describe characteristic differences in nonverbal communication to analyze and generate rules for the understanding of inconsistent messages and to provide researchers with new and comprehensive measures for description of social behavior This volume will be particularly valuable for both the professional psychologist and the graduate student in psychology It will also be of great interest to professionals in the fields of speech and communication sociology anthropology and psychiatry Archives suisses de neurologie, neurochirurgie et de psychiatrie ,1961 Alternative Psychotherapies Jean Mercer,2014-07-30 Alternative Psychotherapies Evaluating Unconventional Mental Health Treatments addresses concerns about current and newly emerging mental health treatments that are considered unconventional In a parallel to complementary and alternative medical treatments alternative psychotherapies lack research support are at odds with established information about human personality and development and may actually be harmful Professionals and students in the helping professions may find such treatments confusing and difficult to differentiate from emerging therapies that have not yet established a foundation of evidence this is especially problematic if clients propose using unconventional therapies they have found on the Internet Alternative Psychotherapies examines a series of unconventional treatments in terms of the research supporting them their theoretical and historical backgrounds and the potential or documented adverse events that may be associated with them Therapies for both adults and children are included and topics range from recovered memory therapies to bodywork to treatments for autism and to special education issues Alternative psychotherapies frequently share certain historical backgrounds and psychotherapists can use historical insights as well as an understanding of basic research rules and psychological theory to identify unconventional treatments other than the ones discussed The book concludes with a discussion of the advantages and disadvantages of greater regulation of alternative therapies as compared to the current situation in which few mental health interventions are banned or limited by law The Medical Journal of Australia ,1959 The Encyclopedia of Schizophrenia and Other Psychotic Disorders Richard Noll,2009 Deals with the subject of Schizophrenia and Other Psychotic Disorders With more than 600 entries this work features a foreword and an introduction and references and appendixes Its coverage includes the history treatment diagnosis and medical research and theories regarding this class of mental illness Medical Journal of Australia ,1959 Perceptual and Motor Skills Research Exchange ,1958-03 The International Forum for Existential Psychiatry ,1966 Postural Fitness Charles Leroy Lowman,Carl Haven Young,1960 Biofeedback and Self-Control, 1972 Joe Kamiya,1973 California Medicine ,1958 The Psychology of Private Events Louis J.
