

La expresión “quemar las naves” significa que no hay vuelta atrás.

Unos lo atribuyen a Hernán Cortés, aunque él las hundió, no las quemó.

Fue Alejandro Magno quién quemó las naves de su flota una vez sus tropas pusieron pie en tierra de Fenicia y exclamó:
“O volvemos en sus navíos o no volvemos”

Seeking Common Ground: Latinx and Latin American Theatre and Performance Evelina Fernández, Carlos Celdrán, J. Ed Araiza, Alex Alpharaoh, 2021-09-23 Honorable Mention from the 2022 International Latino Book Awards for Best Nonfiction Multi Author. A curated collection of new Latinx and Latin American plays, monologues, interviews, and critical essays that asks the question: what is the common ground between Latinx and Latin American artists? Featuring a mix of plays and scholarly essays, this work originally emerged from the Latino Theater Company's Encuentro de las Américas festival, produced in partnership with the Latinx Theatre Commons (LTC) at the Los Angeles Theatre Center in 2017. The collection chronicles not only the theatrical productions of the festival but also features a transnational exploration of U.S. Latinx and Latin American theatre-making. Alongside plays by Evelina Fernández, Alex Alpharaoh, J. Ed Araiza, and Carlos Celdrán, this anthology also includes a mix of monologues, snapshots, profiles, and interviews that together provide a dynamic account of these intersections within U.S. Latinx and Latin American Theater. A unique collection, it serves not only as a testament to the diversity of Latinx artists but also to the strength of the Latinx Theater movement and its ever-growing networks across the Hemispheric Americas. Full playtexts include Dementia by Evelina Fernández, WET A DADAmented Journey by Alex Alpharaoh, Miss Julia adapted by J. Ed Araiza, 10 Million by Carlos Celdrán.

Otherness in Communication Research Luisa Magalhaes, 2025-01-02 This book offers various perspectives from media studies, interpersonal communication, and intercultural communication on the experience and effects of being othered, excluded, and treated as less than. Its three sections cover 1) expressions of otherness in everyday life, 2) experiences of otherness in media discourses, and 3) strategies against otherness in social interaction. This book challenges the expression of otherness that is frequently related to texts of colonialism and of western social hegemony, characteristic of the Global North, therefore giving voice to perspectives from the Global South in a pluralistic reading. The collection of contexts in which the expression of otherness is highlighted in this book are presented in the perspective of the powerless other. As a receiver involved in a communicative process, the othered individual is approached in relation to his/her identitarian demonstrations both in daily life, face-to-face and virtual contexts, and in critical situations. These range from households to school and to media environments, therefore enhancing a thorough perspective on the phenomenon of othering in plural contexts. Eroberte Eroberer Guido Rings, 2005
