Beller, 2020-06-30 Young widow Joanna Watson is struggling to make a new home for her five year old son Samuel in the little mountain town of Settler s Fort When she returns home from work to find Samuel and the woman watching him missing with no lawman in town she enlists a man she prays has enough experience in this rugged country to help Isaac Bowen wants nothing more than a quiet invisible life in these mountains far away from the bad decisions of his past But he has a strong suspicion of who s behind the kidnapping and if he s right he knows all too well the evil they re chasing As they press on against the elements Joanna fights to hold on to hope while Isaac knows a reckoning is coming They find encouragement in the tentative trust that grows between them but whether it can withstand the danger and coming confrontation is far from certain in this wild unpredictable land

Quest Thomas Sinclair, 1885 Collage Quest Donna L. Thompson, 2015-11-12 Come voyage through lost roots of the multi dimensional artistry of collage This seemingly simple method leads you on an adventure of self discovery developing your innate abilities for shapes shifting using paper scissors and glue Author and artist Donna Thompson shares her wisdom and stories as she leads you on a journey through time From caves of old to collaging in your own home this colorful adventure is an in depth exploration of humanity s ancient connections to making art This triple layered approach is actually three books in one It begins by guiding you through the mystical Doorway of Color where you learn the Celtic ways of sensing gathering and envisioning with images Next comes the Doorway of Ceremonies where you unearth indigenous ways of communing with collage And finally the Doorway of Dreams leading to the most ancient ways of remembering who you truly are Learning to quest with collage is all about playing with colors signs and synchronicity It is also a metaphor for the ongoing journey of each human life You are invited to come along in search of multi hued elements to weave into an ever unfolding landscape of your own design Collage Quest is a guide for tracing these deep roots and translating them into modern day materials and language It is a unique and powerful 21st century tool of co creation "Crown's Quest." Emil Dietzsch, 1878 Timothy's Quest Kate Douglas Smith Wiggin, 1899 Jason's Quest Daniel Orzo Smith Lowell, 1893

Vine Prayers Judith Hannemann, 2015-01-09 Vine Prayers is encouragement for the reader to apprehend the grace of abiding in Christ The book is comprised of biddings for fellow branches and prayers to the True Vine for holding readers closer to the heart of God The Prince's Quest and Other Poems William Watson, 1896 Between the Bocas Jak Peake, 2017-07-19 Situated opposite the mouth of the Orinoco River western Trinidad has long been considered an entrep t to mainland South America Trinidad s geographic position seen as strategic by various imperial governments led to many heterogeneous peoples from across the region and globe settling or being relocated there The calm waters around the Gulf of Paria on the western fringes of Trinidad induced settlers to construct a harbour Port of Spain around which the modern capital has been formed From its colonial roots into the postcolonial era western Trinidad therefore has played an especial part in the shaping of the island's literature. Viewed from one perspective, western Trinidad might be deemed as narrating the heart of the modern state's national literature. Alternatively, the political threats posed around San Fernando in Trinidad's southwest in the 1930s and from within the capital in the 1970s present a different picture of western Trinidad, one in which the fractures of Trinidad and Tobago's projected nationalism are prevalent. While sugar remains a dominant narrative in Caribbean literary studies, this book offers a unique literary perspective on matters too often perceived as the sole preserve of sociological, anthropological, or geographical studies. The legacy of the oil industry and the development of the suburban commuter belt of East West Corridor therefore form considerable discursive nodes alongside other key Trinidadian sites such as Woodford Square, colonial houses, and the urban yards of Port of Spain. This study places works by well-known authors such as V. S. Naipaul and Samuel Selvon alongside writing by Michel Maxwell, Philip Marcella, Fanny Wilkins, E. L. Joseph, Earl Lovelace, Ismith Khan, Monique Roffey, Arthur Calder Marshall, and the largely neglected novelist Yseult Bridges, who is almost entirely forgotten today. Using fiction, calypso, history, memoir, legal accounts, poetry, essays, and journalism, this study opens with an analysis of Trinidad's nineteenth-century literature and offers twentieth-century and more contemporary readings of the island in successive chapters. Chapters are roughly arranged in chronological order around particular sites and topoi, while literature from a variety of authors of British, Caribbean, Irish, and Jewish descent is represented.
