Questioning Misfortune The Pragmatics Of Uncertainty In Eastern Uganda:

Questioning Misfortune Susan Reynolds Whyte, 1997 Some of the most interesting ethnographies of experience are concerned to highlight the indeterminate nature of life Questioning Misfortune is very much within this tradition Based on a long term study of adversity and its social causes in Bunyole eastern Uganda it considers the way in which people deal with uncertainties of life such as sickness suffering marital problems failure and death Divination may identify causes of misfortune ranging from ancestors and spirits to sorcerers Sufferers and their families will then try out a variety of remedial measures including pharmaceuticals sorcery antidotes and sacrifices But remedies often fail and doubt and uncertainty persist Even the commercialisation of biomedicine and the peril of AIDS can be understood in terms of a pragmatics of uncertainty

Soziale Reproduktion in den Zeiten von AIDS Helga Jockenhövel-Schiecke, 2008 Gender, Conflict and Reintegration in Uganda Allen Kiconco, 2021-06-24 This book explores what happened when the tens of thousands of girls now women abducted by Lord's Resistance Army and inducted into their campaign of violence against the Ugandan government returned home Drawing on extensive original research the author considers the challenges which the formerly abducted women have encountered upon their return the strategies which have been used to aid their reintegration and the enduring stigma of abduction which they continue to suffer from The author demonstrates that home a place of hope and comfort can also be a hostile environment which leaves formerly abducted women in precarious and vulnerable situations The many shortcomings in the reintegration process have serious implications for the prospects of post conflict reconstruction Analysing reintegration as a long term and dynamic process which involves complex negotiations and exchanges between hosting communities and formerly abducted women this book will be of interest to scholars policymakers and practitioners working in the fields of post conflict reconstruction African politics and gender and conflict

Missional Theology in Context Buhle Mpofu, 2025-10-30 This book discusses Missional Theology from trans disciplinary and diverse angles from which scholars unpack missional theologies which emerge out of their different contexts spanning from countries such as Thailand South Korea Taiwan Netherlands Switzerland Uganda South Africa and Zimbabwe This diversity of contexts and scholarly approaches underscore the notion of globality which is at the heart of subverting Empire explored through the intersecting themes of environmental justice social and economic justice addressing poverty migration challenges and dealing with all forms of discrimination such as gender and racism Central to the approach of this book is the notion that subverting Empire requires an urgent and transformational shift from traditional approaches to creative and missional approaches grounded on human dignity and life affirming values as opposed to the death dealing effects of the current global architecture which thrives on exploitation of the poor and marginalized communities

Postcolonial Subjectivities in Africa Pnina Werbner, 2002 This is the third volume in a trilogy on identity memory and subjectivity Contributors to the book share an ambition to combine personal political and existential dimensions in detailed evocations of the ambitions and vulnerabilities of contemporary Africans Their essays aim to forge alliances between patient local scholarship and adventurous theoretical speculation that should inspire new research and caution against bland generalizations about African marginality Questions of Competence Richard Jenkins,1998 This book offers a conceptualisation of intellectual disability emphasising its cultural variability and social construction African Local Knowledge & Livestock Health William Beinart,Karen Brown,2013 A much needed examination of contemporary approaches to animal healing in South Africa informed by a strong understanding of history The Act of Living Marco Di Nunzio,2019-04-15 The Act of Living explores the relation between development and marginality in Ethiopia one of the fastest growing economies in Africa Replete with richly depicted characters and multi layered narratives on history everyday life and visions of the future Marco Di Nunzio s ethnography of hustling and street life is an investigation of what is to live hope and act in the face of the failing promises of development and change Di Nunzio follows the life trajectories of two men Haile and Ibrahim as they grow up in the Ethiopian capital Addis Ababa enter street life to get by and turn to the city s expanding economies of work and entrepreneurship to search for a better life Apparently favourable circumstances of development have not helped them achieve social improvement As their condition of marginality endures the two men embark in restless attempts to transform living into a site for hope and possibility By narrating Haile and Ibrahim s lives The Act of Living explores how and why development continues to fail the poor how marginality is understood and acted upon in a time of promise and why poor people s claims for open endedness can lead to better and more just alternative futures Tying together anthropology African studies political science and urban studies Di Nunzio takes readers on a bold exploration of the meaning of existence hope marginality and street life Who Knows Tomorrow? Sandra Calkins,2016-02-01 Although uncertainty is intertwined with all human activity plans and aspirations it is experienced differently at times it is obsessed over and at times it is ignored This ethnography shows how Rashaida in north eastern Sudan deal with unknowns from day to day unpredictability to life threatening dangers It argues that the amplification of uncertainty in some cases and its extenuation in others can be better understood by focusing on forms that can either hold the world together or invite doubt Uncertainty then need not be seen solely as a debilitating problem but also as an opportunity to create other futures Caring on the Frontline during COVID-19 Cecilia Vindrola-Padros,Ginger A. Johnson,2022-02-24 This book examines the experiences of global healthcare workers during the COVID 19 pandemic It shines a light on the experiences of healthcare workers during the pandemic exploring their lived experiences of delivering care without losing sight of the emotional and symbolic nature of their work Incorporating cutting edge research from global experts in medical anthropology medical sociology medicine psychology and nursing it uniquely demonstrates the value of rapid qualitative research during infectious epidemics Drawing on data collected during the COVID 19 pandemic the book explores global healthcare policies and healthcare workers experiences across 20 countries The Uganda Journal ,2007 Assessing the State of Uganda's Traditional Social Protection

Systems and Implications for Formal Social Protection Policy and Programming David Kyaddondo, James Mugisha, 2014 Journal of Social Development in Africa ,1998 A Tundra of Sickness Joslyn Diana Cassady, 2001

Folk Johannes Nicolaisen, Jens Yde, 2002 Practitioners, Practices, and Patients Patricia Anne Baker, Gillian Carr, 2002

Medical archaeologists and anthropologists are both interested in the cultural constructions of disease healing and medicine and the papers presented in this volume aim to bridge the disciplinary gap widen the field of interpretation and reconsider the cultural complexities of medical ideologies beliefs and practices Cord of Blood Nadia Lovell, 2002-11-20 An ethnographically rich account of the Vodhum voodoo cult amongst the Watchi in Southern Togo Making Sense of AIDS Leslie Butt, Richard Eves, 2008-05-09 In Melanesia rates of HIV infection are among the highest in the Pacific and increasing rapidly with grave humanitarian development and political implications There is a great need for social research on HIV AIDS in the region to provide better insights into the sensitive issues surrounding HIV transmission This collection the first book on HIV and AIDS in the Pacific region gathers together stunning and original accounts of the often surprising ways that people make sense of the AIDS epidemic in various parts of Melanesia The volume addresses substantive issues concerning AIDS and contemporary sexualities relations of power and moralities themes that provide a powerful backdrop for twenty first century understandings of the tensions between sexuality religion and politics in many parts of the world African Journal of AIDS Research ,2004 The Journal of Developing Areas ,1997
