Quebec Nostalgie:

Memories of Diversity - Diversity of Memory Mémoires de la diversité - Diversité de la mémoire Astrid M. Fellner, Laurence McFalls, 2023 How do diversity and memory mutually shape one another This volume of the IRTG Diversity series shows that a focus on memory introduces an important and contested temporal dimension to the politics practices and narratives of diversity Exploring the various entanglements of historical projections and representations of and from the past with contemporary discourses on difference and inclusion the articles in this collection problematize memory in relationship to three often overlapping modes of storytelling literature ethno biography and historiography From the construction of diasporic identities to family migration histories to the conflicted politics of remembering memories shape diversity be they in the form of shared memories divided memories or conflicting memories Typographische Monatsblätter ,
