Personal Identity A Philosophical Analysis Cornell Paperbacks By Vesey:

Personal Identity G. N. A. Vesey, 1977 Personen und Identitäten Dieter Teichert, 2011-10-13 Im Zentrum der Studie steht das Problem personaler Identität Die Diskussion insbesondere der angelsächsischen Gegenwartsphilosophie wird durch reduktionistische Ansätze dominiert die psychologische Kontinuität als Identitätskriterium benennen Der Autor stellt diese Theorien in einen umfassenden historischen und systematischen Zusammenhang Er schließt eine wesentliche Lücke der bisherigen Diskussion Die Kriterienproblematik wird verbunden mit einer Untersuchung der Konstitutionsbedingungen von Identität Entgegen vorschnellen Vereinfachungen führt die Analyse zu dem Ergebnis daß die Kontextabhängigkeit des Personbegriffs eine Pluralität von spezifischen Identitätskriterien bedingt The Self, Supervenience and Personal

Identity Roland G. Alexander, 2019-05-20 First published in 1997 this volume addresses the issue of personal identity by examining the possibility that a person is ascribed identity on the basis of having a supervenient self Ronald G Alexander uses the methods of non eidetic phenomenology and analytic ontology to argue that the self is supervenient on the physical and psychological properties of the human being Understood through the manner Alexander advocates the self is not a static entity but reflects the temporal nature of the person Alexander argues that the self is the pattern character or narrative identity that is the outcome of a person's decision making and actions Persons and Minds Joseph Margolis, 2012-12-06 Persons and Minds is an inquiry into the possibilities of materialism Professor Margolis starts his investigation however with a critique of the range of contemporary materialist theories and does not find them viable None of them he argues can accommodate in a convincing way the most distinctive features of the mental life of men and of lower creatures and the imaginative possibilities of discovery and technology p 8 In an extraordinarily rich analysis Margolis carefully considers and criticizes mind body identity theories physicalism eliminative materialism behaviorism as inadequate precisely in that they are reductive He argues then for ramified concepts of emergence and embodiment which will sustain a philosophically coherent account both of the distinctive non natural character of persons and of their being naturally embodied But Margolis provokes us to ask what is an embodied mind The crucial context for him is not the plain physical body as such but culture Persons he writes are in a sense not natural entities they exist only in cultural contexts and are identifiable as such only by reference to their mastery of language and of whatever further abilities presuppose such mastery p 245 The hallmark of persons in Margolis's account is their capacity for freedom as well as their physical endowment Thus he writes their characteristic powers in effect their freedom must inform the order of purely physical causes in a distinctive way p 246

David Hume Claudia M. Schmidt, 2010-11-01 In his seminal Philosophy of David Hume 1941 Norman Kemp Smith called for a study of Hume for Hume specialists as a unified and intriguing interpretation of his thought for philosophers generally as a synthesis of recent developments in Hume scholarship and for scholars in other disciplines as a guide to Hume s contributions to their own fields

Thought Experiment Tamar Szabo Gendler, 2014-01-14 This book offers a novel analysis of the widely used but ill understood technique of thought experiment The author argues that the powers and limits of this methodology can be traced to the fact that when the contemplation of an imaginary scenario brings us to new knowledge it does so by forcing us to make sense of exceptional cases

Personal Identity, the Self, and Ethics Ferdinand Santos, Santiago Sia, 2007-08-16 Going beyond the present controversy surrounding personhood in various non philosophical contexts this book seeks to defend the renewed philosophical interest in issues connected with this topic and the need for a more credible philosophical conception of the person Taking the theory of John Locke as a starting point and in dialogue with contemporary philosophers such as Derek Parfit and P F Strawson the authors develop an original philosophical anthropology based on the writings of Charles Hartshorne and A N Whitehead The authors then show the implications for ethics of this conception of the person and the self International Studies in Philosophy ,1977 The Journal of Critical Analysis ,1976 Self and Identity Daniel Kolak,Raymond Martin,1991 This anthology gathers the most philosophically interesting contemporary writing on core issues about the self identity and the nature of mind The Review of Metaphysics ,1976 The Philosopher's Index ,1982 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts The Journal of Philosophy ,1977 The Philosophy of Education Charles Albert Baatz,1980 Zen Physics David J.
