American Quilts Robert Shaw, 2009 This photographed book covers the historical panorama of quilting in the United States from the quintessential patterns to their cultural significance Book jacket Dating Fabrics Eileen Jahnke Trestain, 1998 Thousands of fabric swatches presented in this guide book can help determine a date of manufacture and something about the fabric piece Samples represent fabrics made in the Americas from 1800-1960 Nebraska Quilts and Quiltmakers Patricia Cox Crews, Ronald Clinton Naugle, 1991-01-01 Features over one hundred quilts created from Nebraska's territorial period to the 1980s with descriptions of the patterns materials and techniques and biographical sketches of the quiltmakers Register of Officers and Agents, Civil, Military and Naval [etc] United States. Department of the Interior, 1899 Personal Quilt Registry Lynne Fritz, Collector Books, 1984 This handy registry is an invaluable aid to every quilter dealer collector and investor Not only will it serve as a perfect insurance record in case of fire or theft but will also be treasured by you and your family for years to come For the quilter it will add satisfaction and joy to the project For the dealer and investor it will provide accurate information for business and tax records May we suggest a different book for each type of quilting project i.e. wall hangings pattern blocks quilts clothing etc Federal Register, 1992-02-12 State Register, 1988 Women Vietnam Veterans Donna A. Lowery, 2015-09-24 Women Vietnam Veterans Our Untold Stories by Donna Lowery a Vietnam veteran chronicles the participation of American military women during the Vietnam War This little known group of an estimated 1 000 women from the Army Marine Corps Navy and Air Force left its mark in Vietnam from 1962 to 1973 They served in a myriad of duties from intelligence analysts flight controllers clerk typists translators physical therapists dietitians and communications specialists among many others Our Untold Stories allows the women to speak for themselves about their experiences and for the first time ever brings names facts and figures together in one literary work The purpose of the book is to be historically significant to future researchers The history of the military women in Vietnam began in 1962 with Army Major Anne Marie Doering She was born in what became North Vietnam Her father was a French officer her mother a German citizen When her father died her mother married an American businessman Her service in Vietnam as a Combat Intelligence Officer is a compelling story of the US military women in a war zone It was not until 1965 that the US Women's Army Corps WAC sent two women as advisors to assist the newly formed Vietnam Women's Armed Forces Corps The following year the Army authorized the establishment of a WAC Detachment in Vietnam Soon thereafter the Air Force Marine Corps and Navy also sent women to serve in various capacities In March 1973 under the Paris Peace Accords the last women left Vietnam along with the remaining men The impact they had in Vietnam set the stage for the expansion and integration of women into additional roles in the military Today women serve in areas of active combat demonstrating their abilities and dedication to the mission Victorian Traffic Sue Thomas, 2009-05-05 Organised around the themes Home and Abroad Performative Traffic and Image Circulation Mobility

Victorian Traffic Identity Performance Exchange variously addresses the cultural dimensions of traffic in the long Victorian period cross cultural experience colonial and racial imaginaries everyday literary autobiographical and professional stagings of identity and trade in metaphors communications texts images celebrity character types and quilts The concept of traffic underpins historical interpretation and theoretical formulations and the rhetorics of trade in Victorian usage are contextualised Understandings of identity emphasise the performative and the negotiation of agency in relation to social and cultural scriptings of gender class ethnicity and community The essays have a wide global range and reach This collection of essays takes as its theme an enormously important concept for the nineteenth century traffic a term that in a time of unprecedented commercial and imperial expansion technological developments population growth and urbanization acquired new resonance and came to signify the intensely transactional nature of modernity One of Ruskin s most searing critiques of the spiritual condition of England an invited lecture he delivered in 1864 on the topic of the Bradford Exchange is entitled Traffic and the word clearly signifies for him all that is wrong with post industrial capitalism But this stimulating volume encompasses a range of other significations that have additionally come to accrue around the term relating for example to inter cultural exchange to the circulation of ideas and images to the commodification of identity and to literature art and performance in the market place The scope of the collection is appropriately global including essays on England s relations of exchange with Australia New Zealand North America the Far East and the Caribbean What we are shown ineluctably is that the traffic between Victorian Britain and the reaches of empire between Home and Abroad was two way a vehicle for cross cultural encounter mediation and trade and that cultural identity is relational circulatory and always in motion Hilary Fraser Birkbeck University of London

Museum Informatics Paul F. Marty, Katherine Jones, 2012-07-26 Museum Informatics explores the sociotechnical issues that arise when people information and technology interact in museums It is designed specifically to address the many challenges faced by museums museum professionals and museum visitors in the information society It examines not only applications of new technologies in museums but how advances in information science and technology have changed the very nature of museums both what it is to work in one and what it is to visit one To explore these issues Museum Informatics offers a selection of contributed chapters written by leading museum researchers and practitioners each covering significant themes or concepts fundamental to the study of museum informatics and providing practical examples and detailed case studies useful for museum researchers and professionals In this way Museum Informatics offers a fresh perspective on the sociotechnical interactions that occur between people information and technology in museums presented in a format accessible to multiple audiences including researchers students museum professionals and museum visitors
