H. Sheridan, General, United States Army - Complete Philip Henry Sheridan,2018-08-15 Personal Memoirs of P H Sheridan General United States Army Complete by Philip Henry Sheridan My parents John and Mary Sheridan came to America in 1830 having been induced by the representations of my father s uncle Thomas Gainor then living in Albany N Y to try their fortunes in the New World They were born and reared in the County Cavan Ireland where from early manhood my father had tilled a leasehold on the estate of Cherrymoult and the sale of this leasehold provided him with means to seek a new home across the sea My parents were blood relations cousins in the second degree my mother whose maiden name was Minor having descended from a collateral branch of my father s family Before leaving Ireland they had two children and on the 6th of March 1831 the year after their arrival in this country I was born in Albany N Y the third child in a family which eventually increased to six four boys and two girls The prospects for gaining a livelihood in Albany did not meet the expectations which my parents had been led to entertain so in 1832 they removed to the West to establish themselves in the village of Somerset in Perry County Ohio which section in the earliest days of the State had been colonized from Pennsylvania and Maryland At this period the great public works of the Northwest the canals and macadamized roads a result of clamor for internal improvements were in course of construction and my father turned his attention to them believing that they offered opportunities for a successful occupation Encouraged by a civil engineer named Bassett who had taken a fancy to him he put in bids for a small contract on the Cumberland Road known as the National Road which was then being extended west from the Ohio River A little success in this first enterprise led him to take up contracting as a business which he followed on various canals and macadamized roads then building in different parts of the State of Ohio with some good fortune for awhile but in 1853 what little means he had saved were swallowed up in bankruptcy caused by the failure of the Sciota and Hocking Valley Railroad Company for which he was fulfilling a contract at the time and this disaster left him finally only a small farm just outside the village of Somerset where he dwelt until his death in 1875 We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience NOTES ON THE PERSONAL MEMOIRS Carswell 1835-1892 McClellan,2016-08-28 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important
