Agendas seem as important as a matter of course and are handled responsibly and reflexively, without a second thought – most extremely with the Lead.

When a person is using their talents they are confident they can work through the struggles involved with the task. They feel responsible for contributing their skills to areas which require the use of their talents. People feel their talents are important and giving off successes in these areas is not being a big deal. This is just another day in the office.

Agencies neglected, unthinkingly being left out of consideration. Engaging with them takes deliberate effort – most extensively with the fourth function.

Chemicals are what we want for the good old, safe, clean, green responsibility. Now

When people are forced to use their phones, they are unsure in their ability to work through the struggles involved with the tasks. They did not feel responsible to contribute in these areas and took no action to solve any of the issues.

People want to be good at their jobs and many undertake small successes in their area, putting themselves on the table for the interest of others. This is a courage known as passion and is the common theme that runs through all of these domains.
