Adulthood and Aging Vern L. Bengtson, 1996-07-03 In this volume distinguished scholars explore and apply the theoretical models of continuity and discontinuity to their research in adult development The chapters address the different ways in which continuity is affected by change over the life course as well as how individuals negotiate and maintain crucial continuities by adaptive change Topics include adult life crises illness sibling relationships and gender identity Each chapter is followed by an insightful commentary This book is a tribute to Bernice L Neugarten for her contributions to the field of adult development which includes the concept of continuities Contributors include W Andrew Achenbaum Robert H Binstock James Birren Bertram J Cohler Margaret Hellie Huyck Boaz Kahana Eva Kahana Sheldon S Tobin Lillian E Troll Steven H Zarit and others

New Challenges to Ageing in the Rural North Päivi Naskali, Joan R. Harbison, Shahnaj Begum, 2019-08-26 This book provides an underexplored view of ageing one that conceives older people as valuable resources in their communities as active citizens with both voice and an agency that includes the capacity for resistance It acknowledges that becoming old with dignity means also paying attention to caring good health services and the possibility of good death The book defines age and ageing as multiple culturally and historically constructed phenomena that are only loosely connected to the years of one's life In focusing on the peripheral North located in the Nordic Canadian and Russian north it highlights important questions and viewpoints that can be found and adapted to other rural areas The book answers the following questions What is the relevance of legislation and international legal agreements in ensuring the rights of elderly people under political and economic changes What challenges do geographic isolation changing age structure and cultural and ecological transformations pose to possibilities for meeting older people's needs for engagement in society as well as for their care As such this book will be of interest to all those working in population aging

Critical Gerontology for Social Workers Sandra Torres, Sarah Donnelly, 2023-10-17 This original collection explores how critical gerontology can make sense of old age inequalities to inform and improve social work research policy and practice and empower older people With examples of practice facing research this book engages with key debates on age related human rights and social justice issues The critical and conceptual focus will expand the horizons of those who work with older people addressing the current challenges issues and opportunities that they face

Older People and Their Needs Gianetta Corley, 2000 The final decades of the human lifespan are undeniably complex and challenging both for individuals themselves and for those who care for them With contributions from academic and health care professionals informal and family carers this book provides a rich resource of debate and practical ideas on how to prepare for dignity and quality of life during those years As well as addressing issues of physical independence mobility nutrition continence and dementia care the book also suggests innovative ideas for financial planning and maintaining family and community networks The identity and social roles of older people are explored and there is a particular focus on relationships and communication Aging, the Individual, and Society Susan

Hillier,Georgia M. Barrow,1999 This accessible text brings a social problems approach to the interdisciplinary study of gerontology Academic research is combined with an empathetic view of the lives of older people to involve students emotionally and intellectually Handbook of Clinical Psychology of Ageing Robert T. Woods,1996-07-17 This handbook focuses on the key areas in the psychology of ageing Problems associated with later life development and change Emotional problems and depression associated with loss of physical health and with losses and changes in the areas of social relationship and personal identity The important clinical context of service delivery including community care family care giving and institutional aspects A broad range of therapeutic orientations including cognitive behavioural psychodynamic and family therapy approaches It is hard to do justice to the breadth of material in this book I have found the reading of it both stimulating and enlightening despite believing that I was familiar with most of the topics and have no doubt that I will be using it for reaching and reference purposes into the next millennium if there is one book a Clinical Psychologist working with older people needs this is it Steve Boddington International Journal of Social Psychiatry Life Beyond 85 Years
