Jan Patočka and the Phenomenology of Life After Death Gustav Strandberg, Hugo Strandberg, 2023-12-12 This volume contains for the first time in English Jan Patočka's seminal essay The Phenomenology of Afterlife as well as contributions surrounding and analyzing this text In his essay Patočka reflects on our relation to the dead and on how the departure of a loved one affects our continued existence The premise of Patočka's investigation is that our existence always takes place by and through an originary and reciprocal being for others The contributors in the volume extend the field of inquiry into the wider phenomenological and post phenomenological discussion of death by being cognizant of how works of literature can broaden our understanding of the care of death grief forgiveness and non reciprocal love Also included are reflections on issues of philosophical anthropology community collective memory and the ecstatic nature of life issues that can all be related back to Patočka's initial reflections but which nonetheless radiate into a myriad of directions This volume appeals to students and researchers in the field

Marriage and Life After Death Anthony Onyekwe, 2015-01-29 In Africa the emphasis on family marriage and offspring suggest that there is a kind of an unwritten ancestral law that imposes on every male the duty of begetting a son The reason is because the core of African soteriology is centered on offspring The predicament of the childless couples therefore stems from the desire for immortality and salvation that culminates in the admission of the dead into the ancestral world This quest for salvation and immortality constitute social emotional psychological and spiritual problems for Christian as well as non Christian childless couples
