Human Sexuality Vern L. Bullough, Bonnie Bullough, 2014-01-14 First Published in 1994 The purpose of an encyclopedia is to gather in one place information that otherwise would be difficult to find Bring together a collection of articles that are authoritative and reflect a variety of viewpoints The contributors come from a wide range of disciplines from nursing to medicine from biology to history and include sociologists psychologists anthropologists political scientists literary specialists academics and non academics clinicians and teachers researchers and generalists Two Views of Virtue F. F. Centore, 2000-05-30 Centore's work is an inquiry into the weaknesses and strengths of the two basic positions in ethics the man centered model and the God centered model for deciding between right and wrong behavior The philosophical paradigm for the man centered approach is absolute relativism while the paradigm for the God centered approach is relative absolutism Centore argues that the man centered model in actual practice proves not to be realistic as an ethical guide while the God centered model if properly understood is the most useful approach This work penetrates difficult ethical issues by examining human experience and reasoning in conjunction with actual choices of action Although the God centered approach is shown to be the most practical Centore argues for a natural moral law that avoids any specific theology Each chapter discusses the historical and theoretical background of the approaches and two possible compromises The work is enlivened with examples of possible contexts in which moral decisions must take place Various ethical dilemmas are presented with an examination of the potential consequences of applying either the atheistic or the theistic ethical approach Centore's argument is complex but he explains the elements clearly and his conclusion is strengthened by real life cases and an extensive Bibliography Concepts of Person Catherine McCall, 1990 Principles of Management RN Gupta, 2005 Principles of Management UGC NET Public Administration (Paper-II) Study Notes, Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980 Canadiana, 1981 Reforming Age Discrimination Law Alysia Blackham, 2022-05-30 Age is a critical issue for labour market policy Both younger and older workers experience significant challenges at work Despite the introduction of age discrimination laws ageism remains prevalent Reforming Age Discrimination Law offers a roadmap for the future development of age discrimination law in common law countries to better address workplace ageism Drawing on theoretical doctrinal and empirical legal scholarship and comparative perspectives from the United Kingdom Australia and Canada the book provides a socio legal critique of existing age discrimination laws and their enforcement and proposes concrete suggestions for legal reform and change Building on legal and interdisciplinary insights it examines the challenges and limitations of existing legal frameworks and the individual enforcement model for addressing age discrimination in employment It also maps the stages of claiming negotiation or alternative dispute resolution and hearing and judgment using mixed method case studies of the enforcement of age discrimination law in the United Kingdom and Australia This volume puts forward a four fold model of reform which aims to improve the individual enforcement model strengthen positive equality duties bolster the roles of statutory equality agencies and enhance collective enforcement It goes on to critically consider how these options might address the limits of existing laws and the practical measures necessary to ensure their success and to move beyond the individual enforcement of age discrimination law
