The 56 articles are organised thematically, complete with introductions that place them in context and to illustrate the approaches taken by different schools of criminological thought. Criminological Perspectives will prove an indispensable resource whether you are studying criminology, criminal justice studies, socio legal studies, penology, security studies, surveillance studies or sociology. Girls, Women, and Crime Meda Chesney-Lind, Lisa Pasko, 2004 This reader accompanies The Female Offender Latin American Perspectives in Crime and Social Justice, 1987 Perspectives on Crime Victims Burt Galaway, Joe Hudson, 1981 Criminological Perspectives on Race and Crime Shaun L. Liska, Steven F. Messner, 1999 This fully updated book reflects the most recent changes that have taken place within the study of criminal and deviant behavior. Now with a greater slant on crime, it presents timely discussions on theory, research and policy and rounds out coverage with illuminating historical and comparative research examples. Organizes chapters theoretically and provides a multiview perspective for a sound, balanced treatment with a solid integration of theory, research and social policy throughout. Emphasizes crime as a specific form of deviance and now uses actual research examples vs an encyclopedic review of research to add dimension and reinforce understanding. Extensively revises discussions on theory, research and policy to incorporate the most current information available. Visually supports material with diagrams, boxed research illustrations, tables, graphs and maps. For professors of sociology and criminal justice.

Critical Criminology at the Edge Dragan Milovanovic, 2002-07-30 This study introduces key emerging perspectives in postmodern analysis and discusses how they might be integrated, synthesized and applied in criminology, law and social justice. Milovanovic first familiarizes readers with discourse analysis, Lacanian chaos theory, catastrophe theory and edgework theory. Next, he covers various practical applications through literature and film in client-lawyer practices etc. These new critical perspectives will be invaluable tools for scholars in law, criminology, criminal justice, sociology and law enforcement. These theories shed light on how nonmaterially motivated forms of crime, those that provide adrenaline rushes or excitement, can be understood. They help to explain the development of sudden forms of violence such as criminal acts by disgruntled workers as well as how mediation practices can curtail such escalating violence Milovanovic also demonstrates how constitutive theorizing can serve as an umbrella integrative theory which provides sufficient space for various syntheses A case in point is how edgework theory adrenaline rush excitement visceral experiences can be understood in criminology and in the establishment of social justice
