Perspectives On Black English:

Perspectives on Black English Joey Lee Dillard, 1975 CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE SOCIOLOGY OF LANGUAGE brings to students researchers and practitioners in all of the social and language related sciences carefully selected book length publications dealing with sociolinguistic theory methods findings and applications It approaches the study of language in society in its broadest sense as a truly international and interdisciplinary field in which various approaches theoretical and empirical supplement and complement each other The series invites the attention of linguists language teachers of all interests sociologists political scientists anthropologists historians etc to the development of the sociology of language

Linguistic Perspectives on Black English Philip Luelsdorff, 1975 This volume contains the complete proceedings of the First Wisconsin Symposium on Linguistic Perspectives on Black English on May 1 2 1970 New Perspectives on the Black Atlantic Bénédicte Ledent, Pilar Cuder Domínguez, 2012 This collection of essays attempts to expand the notion of the Black Atlantic beyond its original racial geographical linguistic and cultural borders while acknowledging its remarkable ability to disturb established historical truths and to go beyond traditional dichotomies thereby providing an essential tool for cross cultural understanding It is divided into four sections each of them dealing with a different approach to the question of the Black Atlantic Definitions touches on the various limitations of Gilroy's original concept Readings focuses on how the Black Atlantic can be productively used in readings of certain literary texts Practices shifts towards the practical applications of the concept in order to explore the impact it has had on academic disciplines and examine to what extent it may have altered their epistemology and working procedures Finally Dialogues engages with the Black Atlantic from the perspectives of two creative writers whose work includes transatlantic themes and characters

Linguistic Perspectives on Black English John B. Mack, Southeast City College (Chicago, Ill.). Black Studies Department, 1968* Women's Lives: Multicultural Perspectives Gwyn Kirk, Margo Okazawa-Rey, 2009-02-04 Womens studies womens lives knowing and understanding Our bodies ourselves womens sexuality women bodies womens health Womens places home and work in a globalizing world Security and sustainability Activism and change The Oppositional Culture Theory Paul C. Mocombe, Carol Tomlin, 2010-10-11 Mocombe and Tomlin explore the black white achievement gap in America and Great Britain gaining understanding through black bourgeois living and the labeled pathologies of the black underclass Within the class dualism of capitalist social relations blacks throughout the Diaspora attempt to exist in the world Furthermore blacks must construct their identities and be in the world by choosing between the discursive practices of the Protestant and capitalist ideology of the black Protestant bourgeoisie or the beliefs of the black underclass which appear to dismiss these practices as acting white John Ogbu's term Presently the practical consciousness constituted as hip hop culture of the black underclass supported by finance capital have dominated the American and global social structure and one of its dys functions is the black white achievement gap which is a global phenomenon emanating from black America and affecting blacks around the globe Although the histories of blacks in America and in Great Britain are fundamentally different Mocombe and Tomlin argue in this work that during the age of globalization the social functions of the dominating black consciousness hip hop culture coming out of America are the locus of causality for the black white achievement gap in America and Great Britain Tomlin highlights this problematic by analyzing effective strategies employed by high achieving blacks in Great Britain and Mocombe does the same through an analysis of an effective reading curriculum in an American inner city after school program

This title is a new collection in Routledge's Critical Concepts in Linguistics series In six volumes it provides a critical synthesis of the key ideas findings methods and approaches that make up the interdisciplinary field of sociolinguistics It includes both classic texts and contemporary state of the art research with a bias towards the latter The editors aver that the collection will stand as an articulation of the New Sociolinguistics as it is emerging through a sustained reflexive reassessment of the field which is now ongoing set against a core of classic texts

The Black/White Academic Achievement Gap and Mocombe's Reading Room Series Curriculum Paul C. Mocombe, 2020-09-04 This work explores the concept of structural reproduction and differentiation through the origins of and basis for Paul C Mocombe's Mocombeian Strategy 2005 and Reading Room Curriculum published as Mocombe's Reading Room Series 2007 It highlights how black American practical consciousness and the academic achievement gap are a product of capitalist forces relations of production and their ideological apparatuses As such it is argued here that to resolve the gap black Americans should be treated as immigrant students against their structurally differentiated identities
