Perspectives On Christology Symposium:

Methodius of Olympus Katharina Bracht, 2017-12-04 Methodius of Olympus ca 311 CE is regarded as a key author in 3rd c Christian theology In recent years his works have become objects of intense research interest on the part of Church historians classical Greek and Paleoslavlic philologists and scholars of Armenia The essays in this volume examine the current state of research enhance our understanding of Methodius with valuable new information and open up new research perspectives

Witnessing Christ Michael Biehl, Traugott Hopp, Claudia Jahnelt, Michael Kisskalt, Hanna Stahl, Klaus Vellguth, 2020-09-16 How do Christological Perspectives differ and which specific ways of witnessing Christ exist depending on cultural geographical and confessional context in which they developed Theologians from Africa Asia the Americas the Middle East Oceania and Europe discuss these questions focussing on the missiological implications of various contextual Christologies They aim to answer the question if contextual and confessional provenience coins the epistemological preconditions in a way that creates shapes and secures peculiar identities

The Theology of the Cross in Historical Perspective Anna M. Madsen, 2007-01-01 The theology of the cross is indisputably a trendy concept today Numerous seminars books and dissertations tackle the topic But The Theology of the Cross in Historical Perspective demonstrates that theology of the cross is no passing fancy Theologies of the cross appear at the beginnings of the church in the sixteenth century reformations of the church and in the more contemporary modernization of the church Without theologies of the cross what the church is called to be and to preach becomes unclear So then what is the theology of the cross Anna Madsen surveys the theology of the cross in the thinking of Paul and Luther She also outlines several important twentieth century contributions to the subject On the basis of her analysis Madsen suggests that the theology of the cross reveals God to be found even in death In death after all boundaries disappear The theology of the cross assures Christians that God is present in the death of sin and in the realities of suffering and uncertainty Given that it announces God's presence the theology of the cross is ultimately a theology of grace freedom and trust

God in Christian Perspective George M. Newlands, 2008-07-17 In this book George Newlands seeks to work out a modern restatement of a Christian understanding of God Father Son and Spirit Evil on the scale experience in modern wars and the awareness of the variety of transcendent values in the pluralism of the contemporary world have tended to reinforce intellectual objections to traditional doctrines If the whole picture must remain partly obscure to us nevertheless we must continue to reflect on the character and activity of the God of the Christian faith and renew our attempts to describe and state beliefs In the first part of his study Professor Newlands considers the sources of a Christian understanding of God and analyses the substantive content of the doctrine of God as creator and reconciler of the cosmos as personal self differentiated transcendent being The second part reflects on christology and examines the social and ethical dimensions of the cost of discipleship Throughout Professor Newlands demonstrates the importance of thinking about God not in unreflecting slogans but with all our intellectual resources

Feminism and Christian Tradition Mary-Paula Walsh,1999-05-30 This annotated bibliography a volume in the Greenwood series Bibliographies and Indexes in Religious Studies provides access to the numerous writings from the 1960s through the 1990s on feminism and Christian tradition Major feminist theologians and sociologists are represented As a guide to further research this cross disciplinary approach presents themes and issues in both a historical and a topical framework An extensive overview of feminism in relation to the women s movement women s studies sociology and American religion introduces the literature and provides a historical context for the nearly one thousand entries that follow Cross referenced throughout the literature is presented in six thematic categories that include introductory and background materials feminism and the development of feminist theology topical literatures in feminist theology feminism and womanist theology religious leadership of women and responses and recent developments Separate author subject and title indexes complete the volume

Perspectives on Christology ,1989 Doketismus und Inkarnation Wichard von Heyden,2014-07-02 A History of the Quests for the Historical Jesus, Volume 2 Colin Brown,Craig A. Evans,2022-11-08 A comprehensive two volume reassessment of the quests for the historical Jesus that details their origins and underlying presuppositions as well as their ongoing influence on today s biblical and theological scholarship Jesus life and teaching is important to every question we ask about what we believe and why we believe it And yet there has never been common agreement about his identity intentions or teachings even among first century historians and scholars Throughout history different religious and philosophical traditions have attempted to claim Jesus and paint him in the cultural narratives of their heritage creating a labyrinth of conflicting ideas From the evolution of orthodoxy and quests before Albert Schweitzer s famous Old Quest to today s ongoing questions about criteria methods and sources A History of the Quests for the Historical Jesus not only chronicles the developments but lays the groundwork for the way forward The late Colin Brown brings his scholarly prowess in both theology and biblical studies to bear on the subject assessing not only the historical and exegetical nuts and bolts of the debate about Jesus of Nazareth but also its philosophical sociological and theological underpinnings Instead of seeking a bedrock of facts Brown stresses the role of hermeneutics in formulating questions and seeking answers Colin Brown was almost finished with the manuscript at the time of his passing in 2019 Brought to its final form by Craig A Evans this book promises to become the definitive history and assessment of the quests for the historical Jesus Volume One sold separately covers the period from the beginnings of Christianity to the end of World War II Volume Two covers the period from the post War era through contemporary debates Looking in the Other Direction Teun van der Leer,2023-09-22 In this study Teun van der Leer tells the story of the Believers Church Tradition a tradition mainly rooted in the so called Radical Reformation which prefers to be called a movement or rather a renewal movement Its name is a program a vision and a way of being church Based on extensive source research this book describes and analyzes the defining characteristics of this so called third type of church and investigates its ecumenical value With an extensive description of its nature of faith the church hermeneutical discernment and mission this book colors a movement within the church landscape that has never been mapped in such detail before As such the book provides an in depth introduction to this ecumenically important but still a bit underexposed movement and makes a substantial contribution to the ecumenical ecclesiological debate about the church and its future
