Perspectives On Persian Painting Illustrations To Amir Khusrau's Khamsah:

Perspectives on Persian Painting Barbara Brend, 2003 This is a detailed study of the illustrations to Amir Khusrau's Khamsah. The first extant exemplar is from the Persian area in the late 14th century but a case can be made that work was probably illustrated earlier in India.

Perspectives on Persian Painting Dr Barbara Brend, 2013-11-05 This is a detailed study of the illustrations to Amir Khusrau's Khamsah in which twenty discourses are followed by a brief parable and four romances. Amir Khusrau 1253-1325 lived the greater part of his adventurous life in Delhi; he composed in Persian and also in Hindi. From the point of view of manuscript illustration his most important work is his Khamsah Quintet. Khusrau's position as a link between cultures of Persia and India means that the early illustrated copies of the Khamsah have a particular interest. The first extant exemplar is from the Persian area in the late 14th century but a case can be made that work was probably illustrated earlier in India.

The Art Bulletin, 2002 Includes section Notes and reviews Treasures of Herat BARBARA. BREND, 2022-07-05 An illustrated reference book for students and scholars of Persian art, poetry and literature. With this book Barbara Brend provides thorough consideration of two celebrated Persian manuscripts housed in the British Library. These two copies of the Khamsah Quintet, a set of five narrative poems by Nizami Ganjavi, a master of allegorical poetry in Persian literature, were produced in Herat in the fifteenth century, one of the greatest periods of Persian painting. Although well known, the manuscripts have never before been written about in relation to each other. Brent tells the story of each poem and the painting that illustrates it and she formally analyzes the images, placing them in their historical and artistic context. The images from both highly prized manuscripts are beautifully reproduced in color and the collected history of one of the manuscripts, recorded in the form of seal impressions and inscriptions, is also included. Ursula Sims Williams provides a translation and commentary of these important marks of ownership which identify the Mughal rulers Akbar, Jahangir, Shah Jahan and Aurangzeb among many others.

Bihzad, Master of Persian Painting Ebadollah Bahari, 1996-12-15 Although Kamal al-Din Bihzad 1460-1535 is acknowledged to be one of the greatest masters of Persian painting, there has to date been no comprehensive study of his life and work. He flourished during the golden age of artistic achievement in the late Timurid and early Safavid periods, working in Herat and then in Tabriz. This illustrated book traces the roots of the style developed by Bihzad, its heritage and its legacy in Iran, Mughal India and Ottoman Turkey. The author approaches the subject by attempting to relate the paintings to the stories and themes they portray, thus enabling us to appreciate Bihzad's work in a way that has generally been neglected by Western art historians. Bahari has examined Bihzad's paintings in libraries and collections all over the world and this study brings together a huge body of the work.
