Hall, 1989 FROM QUR'ANIC THOUGHT TO MODERN CHALLENGES: INTELLECTUAL, SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL PERSPECTIVES Prof. Dr. Muhammed SAFDAR BHATTI, 2025-10-21 In the contemporary academic world where interdisciplinary approaches have gained increasing significance it becomes ever more essential to revisit the intellectual and cultural foundations of humanity The studies presented in this volume represent a diverse yet interconnected attempt to address the multifaceted dimensions of religion society education and history from both classical and contemporary perspectives The first contributions examine the Qur n as a guide for human intellect and reflection highlighting concepts such as contemplation tedebb r i tib r taakkul tadhakkur and ru yah Through these the Qur n not only directs human beings to recognize the existence and unity of God but also emphasizes the responsibility of employing reason in understanding the relationship between God humanity and the universe Thinking in this regard is presented as a fundamental act of worship and a pathway to truth Another important focus is on Imam Ab Man r al M tur d whose scholarly identity and intellectual legacy stand at the heart of the Ahl alSunnah tradition His epistemological insights as well as his contributions in kal m fiqh and tafs r are revisited here in relation to the political cultural and academic environment of his time By situating M tur d within the vibrant intellectual milieu of Bukhara Nishapur and Samarkand this study sheds light on how he shaped a rational and tolerant discourse that continues to inspire theological thought today The metaphor of fermentation is then employed to explore the dynamics of social thought Just as fermentation in the biological sense signifies transformation and maturation the metaphor here encapsulates the evolving processes of religious cultural and intellectual development across history From the Abbasid period to Al Andalus and the Ottoman experience with the printing press and further into the digital age the analysis demonstrates how values norms and beliefs are continuously reshaped through individual reflection and collective interaction
