Perspectives On American Sculpture Befor:

Perspectives on American Sculpture Before 1925 Thayer Tolles, 2003 The Metropolitan Museum of Art has long been renowned for its collection of American sculpture in particular its world famous American Neoclassical marbles This volume contains eight papers presented at a symposium held at the Museum on October 26 2001 upon the publication of American Sculpture in The Metropolitan Museum of Art The contributors who include art historians museum professionals and independent scholars offer a fascinating cross section of current thematic interests and scholarly approaches to American sculpture Each contributor takes as their starting point a sculpture or group of sculptures in the Metropolitan s collection presenting a wide variety of approaches to the study and understanding of these works The Hall of Fame for Great Americans Sheila Gerami, 2024-06-14 The Hall of Fame for Great Americans provides a window into the cultural changes taking place in the United States from the turn of the twentieth century into the twenty first This book is the first examination of the institutional and social history of America s first hall of fame from its dynamic opening in 1901 through its protracted decline in the late twentieth century and its brief return to relevancy in the early twenty first century It also examines in depth what is arguably the least studied project of Stanford White one of the most distinguished architects of the Gilded Age Originally designed for New York University s new campus in the Bronx the Hall of Fame once housed ninety eight bronze busts of men and women deemed great Americans within its elegant colonnade including the likes of George Washington Nathaniel Hawthorne Booker T Washington Susan B Anthony and Robert E Lee The Hall was conceived when the Great Man theory dominated American thought However as times changed challenges to ideas concerning greatness and heroism grew and heroes once celebrated were scrutinized for their flaws The monument is now a shell of its former glory and largely forgotten and the NYU campus that once housed the colonnade was eventually sold to Bronx Community College In 2017 following the violent demonstrations in Charlottesville Virginia by white supremacists attempting to prevent the removal of a monument to General Lee Andrew Cuomo then governor of New York thrust the Hall of Fame back into the limelight by ordering the busts of Lee and Stonewall Jackson to be removed This action joined a national trend to remove monuments deemed offensive Gerami argues that the rise and fall of this institution mirrors the nation s changing conception of what comprises a hero This biography of a public art memorial answers questions about the importance of art history and the cultural evolution of what it means to be great in America Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art, 1960-1985 Jen Kennedy, Trista Mallory, Angelique Szymanek, 2021-04-28 Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art 1960-1985 is a collection of essential essays that bring transnational feminist praxis into conversation with histories of feminist art in the 1960s 1970s and early 1980s The artistic practices and processes examined within these pages all centre on gender and sexual politics as they variously intersect with race class sovereignty Indigeneity citizenship and migration at particular historical moments and within specific geopolitical contexts The book s central premise is that reconsidering this period from transnational feminist perspectives will enable new thinking about the critical commonalities and differences across heterogeneous and geographically dispersed practices that have contributed to the complex and multifaceted relationship between feminism and art today The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history cultural studies visual culture material culture and gender studies

Voyages of the Self : Pairs, Parallels, and Patterns in American Art and Literature Barbara Novak Helen Goodhart Altschul Professor of Art History Barnard College and Columbia University,2007-01-01

Barbara Novak is one of America s premier art historians the author of the seminal books American Painting of the Nineteenth Century and Nature and Culture the latter of which was named one of the Ten Best Books of the Year by The New York Times and was nominated for a National Book Critics Circle Award Now with Voyages of the Self this esteemed critic completes the trilogy begun with the two earlier works offering once again an exhilarating exploration of American art and culture In this book Novak explores several inspired pairings of key writers and painters drawing insightful parallels between such masters as John Singleton Copley and Jonathan Edwards Winslow Homer and William James Frederic Edwin Church and Walt Whitman and Jackson Pollock and Charles Olson Through these and other groupings Novak tracks the varied meanings of the self in America in which the most salient characteristics of each artist or writer is shown to draw from and in turn influence the larger map of American life Two major threads weaving through the book are the American preoccupation with the object and our continuing return to pragmatism Novak notes for instance how Copley s art mirrors the puritan denial of self found in Jonathan Edwards and how as colonial scientists they share an interest in sensation and observation She sees Winslow Homer and William James as practitioners of a pragmatic self grounded in an immediate experience that looks for concrete results Through such fruitful comparisons whether between Copley and Edwards or Lane and Emerson or Ryder and Dickinson Novak sheds unmatched light on our nation s artistic heritage Wonderfully illustrated with dozens of black and white pictures and sixteen full color plates here is a stunning work that yields a wealth of insight into American art and culture and concludes Novak s landmark trilogy
