Perspectives On Later Life:

Research Handbook on Inequalities in Later Life Catherine Earl, Philip Taylor, 2024-06-05 This Research Handbook critically examines the myriad social and economic inequalities faced by those in later life Contributors dissect examples from the Global North and South to support a new approach to studying ageing that moves beyond popular discourses

Old and New Perspectives on Mortality Forecasting Tommy Bengtsson, Nico Keilman, 2019-03-28 This open access book describes methods of mortality forecasting and discusses possible improvements It contains a selection of previously unpublished and published papers which together provide a state of the art overview of statistical approaches as well as behavioural and biological perspectives The different parts of the book provide discussions of current practice probabilistic forecasting the linearity in the increase of life expectancy causes of death and the role of cohort factors The key question in the book is whether it is possible to project future mortality accurately and if so what is the best approach This makes the book a valuable read to demographers pension planners actuaries and all those interested and or working in modelling and forecasting mortality

Not Your Usual Suspect Hannah Bows, 2023-03-21 An important contribution to the criminological gerontological feminist and elder abuse fields Not Your Usual Suspect expands existing research to consider the behaviour and drivers of older offenders addressing the increasingly important issue of how the needs of this group can be addressed by policy and practice

Lifelong Learning in Later Life Brian Findsen, Marvin Formosa, 2012-03-26 This first truly comprehensive interdisciplinary international critique of theory and practice in lifelong learning as it relates to later life is an absolute tour de force Alexandra Withnall Universities of Warwick and Leicester UK This is a book that needed to be written it provides a most thorough and skilful analysis of a comprehensive range of contemporary literature about learning in later life from many localities and countries of the world Peter Jarvis Professor Emeritus University of Surrey Impressive in its scope this handbook seeks to describe older learning critically within the lifelong learning literature at the same time that it makes a strong and persuasive case for taking older learning seriously in our postmodern world Kenneth Wain University of Malta Lifelong learning in later life is an essential handbook for a wide range of people who work alongside older adults in varied contexts This handbook brings together both orthodox approaches to educational gerontology and fresh perspectives on important emerging issues faced by seniors around the globe Issues discussed include the social construction of ageing the importance of lifelong learning policy and practice participation in later life learning education of marginalised groups within older communities inter generational learning volunteering and active ageing the political economy of older adulthood learning for better health and well being and the place of seniors in a learning society Brian Findsen is a professor of adult education Faculty of Education University of Waikato Hamilton New Zealand His writings are usually constructed within a social justice framework such as The Fourth Sector Adult and Community Education in Aotearoa New Zealand edited with John Benseman and Miriama Scott in 1996 and Learning later 2005 Marvin Formosa is a lecturer in the European Centre for

Gerontology University of Malta Msida Malta In addition to various articles focusing on critical educational gerontology recent and forthcoming books include Social Class Dynamics in Later Life 2009 and Social Class in Later Life Power Identity and Lifestyle with Paul Higgs 2012 EBOOK: Women in Later Life: Exploring Race and Ethnicity Haleh Afshar, Myfanwy Franks, Mary Ann Maynard, Sharon Wray, 2008-05-16 The authors argue that much of the research into later life has neglected ethnic and cultural variation Their aim is to help us to understand what is important in older women's lives across a range of ethnic groups They have certainly achieved this in what is a readable and detailed analysis of their findings Highly recommended Nursing Standard the first book to comprehensively examine the lives of older women from ethnic minorities in the UK as well as non migrant White women The authors draw on extensive qualitative research to provide novel ways of looking at the priorities and concerns of older women providing insights into what enhances their quality of life Mary Maynard and colleagues have written an outstanding book Women in Later Life will be essential reading for students on undergraduate and postgraduate courses on gender ethnicity and later life Sara Arber University of Surrey what is it like to be an older person and particularly an older woman This carefully crafted and wide ranging book seeks to answer this question The book reminds us that age is a social construct one which profoundly disadvantages women For minority ethnic women where this book makes an important contribution to a largely unexplored territory the situation is even more dire The authors have opened up a huge area of policy demonstrating despite the rhetoric of government how badly we treat our elders Professor Gary Craig University of Hull Britain along with other Western and industrialized countries has an ageing population We already live in one of the demographically oldest societies to have ever existed and the population is going to get older By 2020 it is estimated that one third of the population will be aged over 50 Furthermore older women outnumber older men since men tend to die at a younger age than women In the academic mainstream relatively little is known about older women from minority ethnic communities This groundbreaking book is based on interviews and focus groups with women of different backgrounds and ethnicities whose lives illustrate the strength of character and optimism that have often enabled them to live through hard times but who in general view later life positively In seeking to understand the relationships between age gender and ethnicity the authors focus on a number of key themes including Family and networks Health and well being Religion faith and spirituality Income pensions and housing The meaning of identity and life course events Death and dying Women in Later Life will be key reading for students and practitioners with an interest in gender and or issues surrounding later life The Parallel March of Asthma and Allergy in Childhood: A Multi-Perspective Approach Luis Garcia-Marcos, Carlo Caffarelli, Kostas N Priftis, 2018-07-24 It has not been yet clarified whether allergy and asthma are part of the same condition or they follow a parallel path This Research Topic aims to try and put some light in this parallel march going through crucial topics from prenatal events to later risk factors such as obesity and from basic immunology to immunotherapy both subcutaneous and sublingual We hope the readers can infer their own conclusions as what is first egg
