Perspectives On Nonviolence:

Nonviolent Perspectives Andrew Fitz-Gibbon, 2025-02-04 This book is a compilation of essays addressing the central issue of humanity interpersonal violence and more importantly nonviolence as its antidote The essays trace the author's journey from early pacifist convictions influenced by personal experiences with violence to a nuanced understanding of nonviolence rooted in ethics love spirituality and critical theory Spanning over two decades the writings explore various dimensions of nonviolence from philosophical arguments and historical analysis to practical applications in parenting political resistance and care ethics The book brings together previously published works that have been instrumental in shaping the author's thinking making them accessible for scholars students and anyone interested in nonviolence With reflections on the works of Murdoch MacIntyre Gandhi and others it offers a comprehensive examination of nonviolence as both a personal practice and a social imperative

Perspectives on Nonviolence V.K. Kool, 2012-12-06 Paddock has referred to societies as anti violent that inhibit the expression of aggression In his book Violence and Aggression KE Moyer has made a brief but interesting comparison of several violent and nonviolent cultures Whereas studies of violence have ranged from genetic cultural to situation effects and have been pursued through empirical and nonempirical methods over the past several decades nonviolence did not become a favorite area of study among social scientists Although it is impossible to make a complete list of the various reasons for the lack of interest among social scientists on this subject it is generally believed that a lack of understanding of the concept and a failure to either develop or apply adequate methods are to blame Therefore we are not surprised that nonviolence has remained by and large a favorite topic among religious thinkers and leaders only A good example of how people have difficulty understanding the concept of nonviolence came to me when I delivered a lecture to a group of political science students several years ago I experienced similar problems when I spoke to the history and political science professors Subsequent dialogues with faculty members in other disciplines convinced me that our perspectives on nonviolence were not commonly clear to all of us or course most of us did agree on one thing that there is a distinct difference separating Eastern from Western views of nonviolence
