Persuasive Imagery A Consumer Response Perspective:

Persuasive Imagery Linda M. Scott, Rajeev Batra, 2003-04-02 This volume synthesizes and advances existing knowledge of consumer response to visuals Representing an interdisciplinary perspective contributors include scholars from the disciplines of communication psychology and marketing The book begins with an overview section intended to situate the reader in the discourse The overview describes the state of knowledge in both academic research and actual practice and provides concrete sources for scholars to pursue Written in a non technical language this volume is divided into four sections Image and Response illustrates the difficulty encountered even in investigating the basic influences processes and effects of mere exposure to imagery Image and Word presents instances in which the line between words and pictures is blurred such as the corporate logo which is often pictorial in nature but communicates on an abstract level usually attributed to words Image and the Ad contributes to our appreciation for the exquisite variations among advertising texts and the resultant variability in response not only to different ads but among different viewers of the same ad Image and Object carries the inquiry of visual response over the bridge toward object interaction Having traveled a path that has gone from the precise working of the brain in processing visual stimuli all the way to the history of classical architecture readers of this volume will have a new respect for the complexity of human visual response and the research that is trying to explain it It will be of interest to those involved in consumer behavior consumer psychology advertising marketing and visual communication Go Figure! New Directions in Advertising Rhetoric Edward F. McQuarrie, Barbara J. Phillips, 2008 Rhetorical scholarship has found rich source material in the disciplines of advertising communications research and consumer behavior Advertising considered as a kind of communication is distinguished by its focus on causing action Its goal is not simply to communicate ideas educate or persuade but to move a prospect closer to a purchase The editors of Go Figure New Directions in Advertising Rhetoric have been involved in developing the scholarship of advertising rhetoric for many years In this volume they have assembled the most current and authoritative new perspectives on this topic The chapter authors all present previously unpublished concepts that represent advances beyond what is already known about advertising rhetoric In the opening and closing chapters editors Ed McQuarrie and Barbara Phillips provide an integrative view of the current state of the art in advertising rhetoric Creating Images and the Psychology of Marketing Communication Lynn R. Kahle, Chung-Hyun Kim, 2006-08-15 This book based on a conference in Seoul Korea in 2004 examines the image research in 3 parts under the theory of brand attachment The 3 parts are Theories of Image Country Image and Individual and Celebrity Source Image Visual Marketing Michel Wedel, Rik Pieters, 2007-09-19 This comprehensive volume aims to further research and theory development in visual marketing By bringing together leading researchers in the field it strives to contribute to the establishment of visual marketing as a coherent discipline The chapters represent an array of issues in visual marketing They address three areas in theory attention Rhetorische Bilder auf attischen Vasen Stefan Schmidt, 2005 Information
