

PERSUASIVE WRITING

SLIDE EXAMPLES:

Imperative Commands:

Authors of persuasive texts use imperative sentences to give direct commands or instructions to their audiences. They usually begin with action words (verbs) and will often lack subjects because the audience themselves will usually be the subjects.

Examples:

Make the change!
Stop animal cruelty!
Buy it now!
Sign the petition!
Join our fight to save the forest!
Don't wait until it's too late!
Stand up for what's right!
Vote for the best candidate!

11

Rhetorical Questioning:

A rhetorical question is asked to create a dramatic effect or to make a point rather than to get an answer. It's main purpose is to get the intended audience to think about the idea/topic in a specific way.

Examples of Rhetorical Questions:

- Do you feel like a summer escape right now?
- Do I look like a mad to you?
- Are you happy with your current home loan?
- Have you checked out our amazing new product?
- How can we stand by and allow this to continue?
- How you thought about studying next year?
- This really an accurate account of the events that took place?

Factual Information

Factual information is non-disputable evidence that authors of persuasive texts can use to support their points or ideas.

Examples of factual information:

- Relevant facts
- Statistics / Figures
- Quotes
- Examples

"It's important to remember that information must come from a reliable source to be deemed as 'factual'."

"Do not confuse facts with truths. A 'truth' is an idea that is believed by many people, but it cannot be proven."

13

Hyperbole:

Hyperbole is the use of exaggeration to add emphasis, show contrast or catch the audience's attention. It is used the top and not usually meant to be taken literally. Authors of persuasive texts, however, will often aim to get their audiences to believe their exaggerations.

General Example:

I am so hungry I could eat a horse.

"This example exaggerates the condition of hunger to show that the author is very hungry."

Persuasive Text Examples:

They've been asked to fix this road a million times.
We will move mountains to promote our cause.
This will be the best purchase you ever make!
Their employees have been worked to the bone.
