The 100 Greatest Literary Characters James Plath, Gail Sinclair, Kirk Curnutt, 2019-07-15 From Captain Ahab to Yuri Zhivago discover the most remarkable characters in fiction. Huckleberry Finn, Anna Karenina, Harry Potter, Hester Prynne these are just a handful of remarkable characters found in literature but of course the list is virtually endless. But why ponder which of these creations are the greatest? More than just a topic to debate with friends the greatest characters from fiction help readers comprehend history, culture, politics and even their own place in today's world. Despite our reliance on television, film and technology it is literature's great characters that create and reinforce popular culture informing us again and again about society and ourselves. In The 100 Greatest Literary Characters James Plath, Gail Sinclair and Kirk Curnutt identify the most significant figures in fiction published over the past several centuries. The characters profiled here represent a wide array of storytelling and the authors explore the significance of the figures at the time they were created as well as their relevance today. Included in this volume are characters from literature produced around the world such as Aladdin, James Bond, Holden Caulfield, Jay Gatsby, Hercule Poirot, Don Quixote, Lisbeth Salander, Ebenezer Scrooge, Jean Valjean and John Yossarian. Readers will find their beloved literary figures learn about forgotten gems or discover deserving choices pulled from history's dustbin. Anna May Wong Philip Leibfried, Chei Mi Lane, 2004

Anna May Wong born in Los Angeles in 1905 to a traditional family that did not support her ambition is the only Asian American actress to have achieved stardom during Hollywood's Golden Age. In her youth she went to hundreds of motion pictures and studied the actors. She remained single to avoid a conventional Chinese marriage that could endanger her career. With her beauty and grace she gradually became the darling of the intelligentsia, inspiring poems, songs, and crowds of admirers in the British Isles, Europe, and China. During World War II she toured the United States, New Zealand, and Australia for the benefit of the Chinese war relief. Leaving a legacy of some 60 film appearances, numerous stage and television shows, and several radio spots, Wong remains an outstanding role model for Asian American performers. This book covers Anna May Wong's entire career through detailed filmographic entries, each containing critical commentary as well as standard cast and technical credits, synopses, and newspaper and magazine reviews. The separate sections detail Wong's stage work and radio and television appearances. Information on Wong's beginnings in Los Angeles and personal life is also provided.

Grade Teacher, 1922 Profession, 1994 Hook Geary Gravel, Terry Brooks, 1992. Story about Peter Pan who has grown up. When his children go missing, he is led back to the notorious Captain Hook.

The Rhetoric of Character in Children's Literature Maria Nikolajeva, 2002. Now available in paperback. Until now there was no theoretical research of character in children's fiction, and very few comprehensive theoretical studies of literary characters in general. In her latest intellectual foray, the author of From Mythic to Linear ponders the art of characterization. Through a variety of critical perspectives, she uncovers the essential differences between story (what we are told) and discourse (how we are told) and carefully distinguishes between how these are employed in children's fiction and in general fiction. Yet another masterful work by a leading figure in contemporary criticism.
