The Tailor of Gloucester Beatrix Potter, 2018-06-04 The Tailor of Gloucester is a children's book written and illustrated by Beatrix Potter privately printed by the author in 1902 and published in a trade edition by Frederick Warne Co in October 1903 The story is about a tailor whose work on a waistcoat is finished by the grateful mice he rescues from his cat and was based on a real world incident involving a tailor and his assistants For years Potter declared that of all her books it was her personal favourite

The Tailor of Gloucester Beatrix Potter, 2020-10-09 Beatrix Potter loved the countryside and she spent much of her otherwise conventional Victorian childhood drawing and studying animals Her passion for the natural world lay behind the creation of her famous series of little books A particular source of inspiration was the English Lake District where she lived for the last thirty years of her life as a farmer and land conservationist working with the National Trust She described The Tailor of

Gloucester as her own favourite among her books It was based on the true story of a tailor who left the unsewn pieces of a coat in his shop and found that the garment had been mysteriously finished for him in the night It turned out that the real tailor's assistants were his apprentices but in Beatrix Potter's version of the story the secret helpers are skilful little brown mice
