Personal Perceptions:

Unemployed Youth in the UAE: Personal Perceptions , Individual Resilience to Urban Flooding and the Implications for Urban Management Jing Song,2024-03-16 This book argues that the substantial life and property loss caused by urban flooding might not be a pure result of a vulnerable physical environment social factors especially the individual attributes and capacities could have pivotal roles to play in the resilience discourse as well In light of this this research investigates the relationship between individual resilience to urban flooding and urban management endeavoring to identify place responsive measures for building resilience for residents vulnerable to urban flooding

The Psychology of Prejudice Mark P. Zanna,James M. Olson,2013-04-15 This volume consists of expanded and updated versions of papers presented at the Seventh Ontario Symposium on Personality and Social Psychology The series is designed to bring together scholars from across North America who work in the same substantive area with the goals of identifying common concerns and integrating research findings The topic of this symposium was the psychology of prejudice and the presentations covered a wide variety of issues The papers present state of the art research programs addressing prejudice from the point of view of both the bigoted person as well as the victim of bigotry The chapter authors confront this issue from two major and previously separate research traditions the psychology of attitude and intergroup conflict The chapters are organized in the following sequence of topics the determinants and consequences of stereotypes individual differences in prejudicial attitudes intergroup relations the responses of victims to prejudice and discrimination and an integrative summary commentary Illustrating both the diversity and vitality of research on the psychology of prejudice the editors hope that this volume will stimulate further research and theorizing in this area

The Political Research Experience Marcus E. Ethridge,2015-02-12 Organized to complement an introductory course in political science research methods this work aims to help students understand research as it is actually practiced Each chapter opens with an explanation of basic concepts and methods of political research
