Competency Gap: How Students and Teachers Perception of Competencies Differ from Employers Mansoor Shahab, 2012-11-28. Master's Thesis from the year 2012 in the subject Leadership and Human Resources Miscellaneous course MBA language English abstract. This research is concerned with education employment equation in education sector. This research will be based on perception of employers, teachers, and students about the competencies the graduates possess. Many employers think that employability skills should be shaped somewhere else in graduates before entering workplace throughout the curriculum at all levels. They think that students should be prepared for workplace. It is suspected that widening the access of higher education has increased the heterogeneity of the skills of the students in the industry. Employers have indicated that students are often not prepared for the workplace and call on universities to produce work-ready graduates. Educational institutions are under pressure to generate competent students so that they are able to respond in ever-changing environment. This study aims to explore the level of competencies perceived by employers, teacher's perception about their students, and students themselves perception about their competencies and identify the gaps that need to be addressed. This research will focus where students of Comsats are standing in case of competencies according to employers, teachers, and their own perception. The gaps between the ranks are evaluated. The study is conducted by applying convenience sampling method. To determine the internal consistency Cronbach Alpha test of the individual variables is applied. The overall reliability is found to be acceptable.

Personal Skills in der Arbeitswelt. Persönlichkeit und

Persönlichkeitsmerkmale in der modernen Arbeitswelt und methodische Ansätze zu ihrer Erfassung Katharina Schmitz, 2022-06-10 Studienarbeit aus dem Jahr 2022 im Fachbereich Psychologie Wirtschaftspsychologie Note 1,3 Sprache Deutsch Abstract In dieser Hausarbeit wird der Frage nachgegangen inwiefern die Persönlichkeit eines Menschen in der Arbeitswelt eine Rolle spielt und wie sinnvoll Persönlichkeitstests zur Messung von Persönlichkeitsmerkmalen im beruflichen Kontext sind. Des Weiteren wird die Bedeutung von Persönlichkeitsmerkmalen im beruflichen Kontext näher betrachtet wobei hier speziell der Unternehmensbereich Personalmanagement im Fokus steht. Der Aufbau der Arbeit gestaltet sich wie folgt: Zu Beginn wird der Begriff Persönlichkeit definiert, verschiedene Persönlichkeitsmerkmale aufgelistet sowie der Zusammenhang zwischen Beruf und Persönlichkeit durchleuchtet. Des Weiteren wird das wissenschaftliche Big Five Modell zur Persönlichkeitserfassung aufgegriffen und diskutiert sowie deren Zielsetzung für die Arbeitswelt verdeutlicht. Dies wird anhand eines Fallbeispiels vertieft. Im Ausklang werden weitere Entwicklungen aufgezeigt sowie Persönlichkeitstests für die Einstellung von Personal unter die Lupe genommen. Ein ausführliches Fazit rundet die Hausarbeit ab.

Introduction to Engineering Design: Projects and success skills James W. Dally, 1998 Professionalism in Health Care Sherry Makely, 2009 Professionalism in Healthcare 3 e addresses the special skills and attitudes that a worker must possess to be recognized as a health care professional. This text stresses the idea that professional recognition isn't automatically bestowed upon a person when he or she completes an educational program, obtains a degree or certificate, or secures a license to practice. Recognition as a healthcare professional has to be earned and maintained each and every day. Professionalism is a state of mind, a way of being, knowing, and doing that distinguishes exceptional workers from the ordinary. Enhancing professionalism has become a major challenge for healthcare educators, employers, and personnel. This text helps meet that challenge by describing the professional standards that apply to all health care workers, the common ground that everyone shares in providing the quality care and service excellence that today's patients deserve and demand. Education World, 2005
