Gunton, 2007-07-10 Colin Gunton was world renowned as a scholar systematic theologian and Reformed minister however he never lived to fulfill his ambition to write a book devoted solely to Barth Gunton on Barth is an in depth analysis derived from the lecture course he gave most years at King s College London something of an annual institution it was aimed at undergraduates though the majority of those attending were MA PhD students and researchers from America and Germany Approximately half of the work consists of quotations representing an essential understanding Colin was a creative lecturer although he worked from notes he gave space to the free rein of his mind particularly when fielding questions or trying to analyze a particular strand of Barth s thought Colin s understanding and expertise was world renowned He did not take all Barth wrote uncritically he struggled and wrestled with this giant of twentieth century theology as he always said at the beginning of the course Not everyone buys into Barth I don t all the way along the line as I get older I get more and more dissatisfied with the details of his working out of the faith over the years I think I have developed a reasonable view of this great man who is thoroughly exciting and particularly I can guarantee if you do this course that you will be a better theologian by the third year whether or not you agree with him he is a great man to learn to think theologically with Chalcedon Report, 2001 The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher, 1889 A Homilectical Commentary on the Book of Psalms William Jones (theologian.), 1879
