Foundational Texts of Mormonism Mark Ashurst-McGee, Robin Jensen, Sharalyn D. Howcroft, 2018-02-16 Joseph Smith founding prophet and martyr of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints personally wrote dictated or commissioned thousands of documents Among these are several highly significant sources that scholars have used over and over again in their attempts to reconstruct the founding era of Mormonism usually by focusing solely on content without a deep appreciation for how and why a document was produced This book offers case studies of the sources most often used by historians of the early Mormon experience Each chapter takes a particular document as its primary subject considering the production of a document as an historical event in itself with its own background purpose circumstances and consequences The documents are examined not merely as sources of information but as artifacts that reflect aspects of the general culture and particular circumstances in which they were created This book will help historians working in the founding era of Mormonism gain a more solid grounding in the period's documentary record by supplying important information on major primary sources

White Roses on the Floor of Heaven Susanna Morrill, 2006-05-11 First published in 2006 This volume marks the tenth volume in its series Religion in History Society and Culture This series is designed to bring exciting new work by young scholars on religion to a wider audience Susanna Morrill offers here a fine and sensitive reading of the little known and often simply caricatured history of the religious lives of Mormon women at the turn of the twentieth century She reads the extensive use of flower imagery in poetry and other writing by these women as a species of lay theologizing a way that LDS women elaborated and celebrated the latent female symbolism within a still young and incomplete religious system Retellings Jessica Enoch, Jordynn Jack, 2019-06-19

Retellings Opportunities for Feminist Research in Rhetoric and Composition Studies In Retellings Opportunities for Feminist Research in Rhetoric and Composition Studies the contributors use the anniversary of the publication of Cheryl Glenn's Rhetoric Retold: Regendering the Tradition from Antiquity Through the Renaissance the first book to examine women's contributions to rhetoric across history as an opportune moment to assess feminist rhetorical research and test out new possibilities. Together the essays ask what does it or should it mean to engage rhetoric from a feminist perspective. Each chapter addresses one of four aspects of this question including the place of feminist rhetoric in contemporary real world and transnational politics, the relationship between feminist rhetorical studies and identity studies, the prospects for feminist research methods and methodologies, or the feminist rhetorical commitment to paying it forward through teaching and mentoring. Collectively the essays push scholars to expand the national boundaries of rhetorical inquiry to include women's roles in global politics. Contributors also engage in intersectional analyses of gender and other vectors of power including here religious affiliation and sexuality, considering identities as epistemic resources for rhetors. To develop richer methods and methodologies, contributors highlight the ethical challenges of research practices ranging from IRB submissions to archival research, critically interrogating the positionality of the researcher with relation to her subjects and materials. Finally, contributors address the needs and interests of diverse readers when they highlight how feminist perspectives challenge traditional models of teaching and mentorship. Contributors include Heather Brook Adams, Jean Bessette, Michelle F. Eble, Jessica Enoch, Rosalyn Collings Eves, Karen A. Foss, Sonja K. Foss, Lynne Lewis Gaillet, Cheryl Glenn, Anita Helle, Jordynn Jack, Abby Knoblach, Shirley Wilson Logan, Briggite Mral, Krista Ratcliffe, Cristina D. Ramirez, Elaine Richardson, Wendy B. Sharer, and Berit von der Lippe.

The Personal Writings of Eliza Roxcy Snow Eliza R. Snow, 2001-01-01. Perhaps the most famous woman in Mormon history, Eliza Roxcy Snow was a person of high standing and many accomplishments. She married Joseph Smith secretly in 1842 and wed Brigham Young after Smith's death. She was also the sister of Lorenzo Snow, fifth president of the LDS Church. Best known as Zions poetess, her prominence also earned her the appellations of priestess and prophetess. Capable of producing a poem for virtually any special occasion, she came to be considered the first lady of Mormon letters, having written by her own count nine published volumes. Her leadership among Mormon women is demonstrated by her positions as president of the Relief Society, the church's organization for women; president of the Deseret Hospital Association; and organizer of the Young Ladies Mutual Improvement Association, the children's Primary Association, and the Woman's Commission Store. Compiled in this volume are her autobiographical writings, including Sketch of My Life, originally written for inclusion in Edward W.

Tullidges The Women of Mormondom published in 1877 and revised for Hubert Howe Bancrofts proposed series of histories of the western territories her Nauvoo journal and notebook which are the earliest but most recently discovered of her extant chronicles and her trail diaries covering February 1846 to May 1847 and June 1847 to September 1849 Together they provide valuable insights into both mid nineteenth century Mormon society and Eliza R Snows life revealing much about a public woman who tried to guard her privacy Faith and Intellect as Partners in Mormon History Leonard J.
