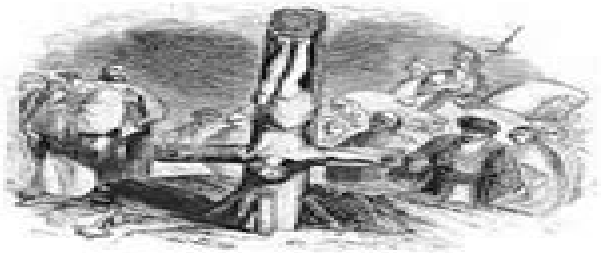
Personalities in the early church who spread the Gospel

After the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, the apostles continued to spread the Gospel. However, they faced a lot of persecution from the priests and other leaders of the time.

Apostle Peter



Peter was the leader of the church by the day of Pentecost. He continued to preach the gospel together with other apostles and the church grew so fast.

The high priest together with other members at the synagogue wondered how he could be so much inspired to the extent of even performing miracles. for example, he had healed a lame man at the temple gate.

They became jealousy of peter who had not studied much. Therefore, they arrested him and some other apostles and put them in a public jail but the Lord was with them. An angel came at night and released them and they continued to preach to the public.

Amidist the persecution, a man named Gamaliel tried to stop the rest so the apostles were set free and continued to preach.

Peter's death.
