

PSYCHOSOCIAL THEORY (ERIKSON)

EXPLANATION

The theory of psychosocial development by Erik Erikson and includes eight stages of personality development.

At each stage, a person faces a certain conflict and, as a result, develops a particular quality or skill.

8 STAGES

1. Trust vs Mistrust
2. Autonomy vs Shame and Doubt
3. Initiative vs Guilt
4. Industry vs Inferiority
5. Identity vs Role Confusion
6. Intimacy vs Isolation
7. Generativity vs Stagnation
8. Ego Identity vs Despair

Personality in the Social Process J. Aronoff, 2014-06-11 First published in 1985 This book presents a new way to ask an old question Many fields have considered the nature of the influence that members of a group exert on the course of social events Social science provides another way to examine this issue Moreover social science has a particular strength It helps us to phrase questions more precisely than before it encourages us to follow a line of reasoning systematically and it requires us to evaluate our ideas in light of a particular kind of evidence The authors want to use these strengths to explore systematically the ways that factors in the person and in the environment together may shape the emergence of social behavior Personality in the Social Process Joel Aronoff, 1985 Negotiation as a Social Process Roderick M. Kramer, David M. Messick, 1995-04-06 While most studies in negotiation and conflict management have focused on cognitive aspects few have addressed the impact of social processes and contexts on the negotiation process Addressing this need Roderick M Kramer and David M Messick have brought together original theory and research from leading scholars in this emerging field A wide range of topics is covered including the role of group identification and accountability on negotiator judgement and decision making the importance of power dependence relations on negotiation intergroup bargaining coalitional dynamics in bargaining social influence processes in negotiation cross cultural perspectives of negotiation and the impact of social relationships on n Personality in the Social Process J.
