Nonprofits and Evaluation Joanne G. Carman, Kimberly A. Fredericks, 2008-10-13 This issue of New Directions for Evaluation explores evaluation within the context of nonprofit organizations In recent years many have observed that nonprofit organizations are under increasing pressure to demonstrate their effectiveness and document their program outcomes as the current political and funding environment continues to stress the importance of accountability and measuring performance. Foundations, government agencies and other funders are asking nonprofit organizations for more evaluation and performance measurement data. Yet most nonprofit organizations continue to struggle with these demands and many lack the capacity to implement evaluation and performance measurement in comprehensive or meaningful ways.

The Nonprofit Handbook Gary M. Grobman, 2002. The definitive reference manual for starting and running a nonprofit corporation in the United States. This handbook provides information on everything from legal issues to practical advice on fundraising. Details of how to incorporate, register to lobby, apply for tax exemptions and comply with charitable solicitation laws are included for every state and for the District of Columbia. Also provided is information about current federal laws, regulations and court decisions that apply to nonprofits as well as staffing, advocacy, strategic planning, bookkeeping and grantsmanship. This updated edition also includes a discussion of nonprofit e-commerce. Personnel Management Leon C. Megginson, 1985.
