Perspective and the Poetic Process Nancy Sullivan, 1968      An Integral View Of Poetry: An India Perspective

Vinayak Krishna Gokak, 1975 This is an original approach to poetry the poetic process and to an interpretation of the various constituents of poetry and of the configuration of all these elements into the magic that is poetry supported by the tradition of Indian aesthetics that has always regarded great poets as seers and prophets stimulated by European literary criticism and by modern critics like T S Eliot I A Richards and the New Critics Indian aesthetics and modern Indian thinkers like Sri Aurobindo Professor Vinayak Krishna Gokak has formulated a theory of poetry which is a new and synthetic statement doing justice to all aspects of the subject his experience as professor of English language and literature in quite a few Indian universities and as professor of literary interpretation to teachers and lecturers from all over India has stood him in good stead in this formulation the book opens with an account of the poetic process in which all the key words of aesthetic theory inspiration imitation expression communication persuasion and configuration are seen to fit into their places in a comprehensive account of the poetic process this is followed by chapters on vision in poetry the four levels of poetic vision the five kinds of poetic vision the poet and the structure of personality the most original part of this account of poetry comes up next in an analysis of attitudes and moods in poetry this is followed by chapters on poetic meaning rhythm imagery diction style propriety a touchstone of poetry and the fulfilment of poetry students of poetry who pick up this book will not be easily inclined to lay it down till they have finished reading it for many of them it will be a profound experience to be cherished and remembered for long

Poetry, Method and Education Research Esther Fitzpatrick, Katie Fitzpatrick, 2020-07-21 Poetry can be both political and pedagogical It is utilised in a variety of ways in research to enhance critique analyse and express different voices Poetry Method and Education Research brings together international scholars to explore issues as diverse as neoliberalism culture decolonising education health and teacher identities A key strength of the book is its attention to poetry as a research method including discussions of how to engage with poetry in research as well as including a range of research poems Poetry is thus framed as both a method and performance Authors in this book address a wide variety of questions from different perspectives including how to use poetry to think about complex issues in education where poetry belongs in a research project how to write poetry to generate and analyse data and how poetry can represent these findings This book is an essential resource for students and researchers in education programmes and those who teach in graduate research methods courses      A/AS Level English Language and Literature for AQA Student Book Marcello Giovanelli, Andrea Macrae, Felicity Titjen, Ian Cushing, 2015-07-09 A new series of bespoke full coverage resources developed for the 2015 A Level English qualifications Endorsed for the AQA A AS Level English Language and Literature specification for first teaching from 2015 this print Student Book offers stretch opportunities for the more able and additional scaffolding for those who need it

Providing full coverage of the specification the unique three part structure bridges the gap between GCSE and A Level and develops students understanding of descriptive linguistics and literary and non literary stylistics together with support for the revised coursework component and new textual intervention task An enhanced digital edition and free Teacher s Resource are also available      Johnson, Rasselas, and the Choice of Criticism Edward Tomarken, 2014-07-15 Although Rasselas has received more critical commentary than almost any other work by Samuel Johnson Edward Tomarken s book is the first full length study to focus on his tale of the Prince of Abyssinia This anomaly arises as Tomarken shows because Rasselas has remained resistant to the customary critical approaches of the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries consistently eliciting new kinds of insights and raising new sorts of problems Tomarken s contribution is a new methodology to explain this phenomenon He sees Johnson s early writings London and Irene as instances of the writer trying with only partial success to achieve what he first realized in The Vanity of Human Wishes a means of permitting literary form to refer to conduct Later works such as The Journey to the Western Islands of Scotland are viewed as further developments of this method which achieved its fullest expression in Rasselas and the Life of Pope Such a reading of Johnson develops an aesthetic that operates on the margins between the literary and the extra literary Although Johnson s own critical view was unable to accommodate such a position Tomarken shows that in practice he moved toward it by a process of trial and error manifest in his poetry and narratives When raised to the level of critical method this approach goes beyond the assumptions not only of Johnson s day but also of our own Tomarken s theoretical coda demonstrates how the choices of current critical theory like those in the marriage debate in Rasselas can be understood to interact with one another Specifically he proposes a dialectical relationship for two approaches hermeneutics and structuralism usually seen as opposed to one another This innovative study will interest not only Johnson scholars but all those concerned with critical theory      Poetry in Expressive Arts Margo Fuchs Knill, Sally Atkins, 2020-10-21 Poetry is increasingly used in therapy and it already occupies a central place in expressive arts therapies This book is the first to explicitly combine theory and practice from the field of expressive arts with poetry and poetics The book offers both a guide and poetic encouragement for using poetry in expressive arts work Within this arts context poetry is offered as a way to create hope and confidence providing clients with a platform for healing reconciliation problem solving and personal and professional development Each chapter uses examples of poetry to illustrate the ideas of the chapter With an outstanding contribution to the field of expressive arts theory and practice this book is essential for people wanting to use an integrative arts based approach to help their clients build resilience and foster sustainable positive change in their lives      Perspective and the Poetic Process Accompanied by a Manuscript of Poems Entitled "Celebration and Requiem" Nancy Ann Sullivan, 1963      A Poetics Handbook Daniel Mario Abondolo, 2001 Most books in English on poetics deal with abstract and theoretical issues with a few mostly English examples whereas this book focuses on the formal aiming to provide a concise systematic overview of the linguistic context of European poetics It is richly documented with concrete examples particularly from Hungarian and other languages and traditions of Europe
