French Muslims in Perspective Joseph Downing, 2019-05-24 With the largest Muslim population in Western Europe France has faced a number of critiques in its attempts to assimilate Muslims into an ostensibly secular but predominantly Catholic state and society This book challenges traditional analyses that emphasise the conflict between Muslims and the French state and broader French society by exploring the intersection of Muslim faith with other identities as well as the central roles of Muslims in French civil society politics and the media The tensions created by attacks on French soil by Islamic State have contributed to growing acceptance of the Islamophobic discourse of Marine Le Pen and her far right Front National party and debates about issues such as headscarves and burkinis have garnered worldwide attention Downing addresses these issues from a new angle eschewing the traditional us and them narrative and offering a more nuanced account based on people s actual lived experiences French Muslims in Perspective will be of interest to students and scholars across sociology politics international relations cultural studies European Studies and French studies as well as policy makers and practitioners involved in immigration education and media

Two Years in the French West Indies Lafcadio Hearn, 1890 Lafcadio Hearn 1850 1904 was an international writer best known for his books about Japan Born on the Greek island of Lefk da the son of an Irish father and a Greek mother he was raised in England Ireland and France and immigrated to the United States at age 19 He lived first in Cincinnati where he landed a job as a journalist and then moved to New Orleans in 1877 where he wrote for several newspapers His impressionistic writings about the city caught the eye of editors at Harper's Magazine which in 1887 sent Hearn to the West Indies as a correspondent. The first part of this book is an account of Hearn's midsummer trip to the tropics which took him from New York to the Lesser Antilles with stops in Saint Kitts, Dominica, Martinique, Barbados, Guyana, Trinidad, Grenada, and Saint Lucia. Hearn was captivated by the French ruled island of Martinique and its people where he came to live for two years. The second part of the book consists of 14 sketches of the island, all with French or Creole titles. The book includes photographs, drawings, and an appendix that discusses the music of Martinique and reproduces the melody and lyrics of several Creole songs. In 1890, the year this work was published, Hearn traveled to Japan where he eventually settled, married a Japanese woman, and became a naturalized Japanese citizen. *Life of Napoleon, Tr. from the French.
