Perspectives On Morisot:

Perspectives on Morisot Kathleen Adler, 1990 Feminist art historians explore many aspects of French Impressionist s life and work Perspectives on Morisot T. J. Edelstein, 1990 Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Art, V.2 Mary M. Gedo, 2013-05-13 This new hardcover annual offers a unique scholarly format an interdisciplinary dialogue that it is hoped will foster the development of a sound useful methodology for applying psychoanalytic insight to art and artists The series provides a medium for those who study art those who interpret it and occasionally those who create it formally to explore the meaning of an artistic work as the direct reflection of the inner world of its creator Within each volume individual topics are addressed by either an art historian or a psychoanalyst with a response frequently tendered by an expert from the other field Reviews of important books of cross disciplinary interest are treated in a similar manner and include rebuttals by the authors themselves It is precisely this exchange of ideas among scholars with difference perspectives on the meaning of a work of art that sets PPA apart from the standard art history publication Its depth of scholarship coupled with its innovative format make it a fascinating addition to the burgeoning field of psychoanalytic studies of art history The Women Impressionists Russell T. Clement, Christiane Erbolato-Ramsey, Annick Houzé, 2000-02-28 This reference organizes and describes the primary and secondary literature surrounding Mary Stevenson Cassatt Berthe Morisot Eva Gonzal s and Marie Bracquemond four major women Impressionist artists The Impressionist group included several women artists of considerable ability whose works and lives were largely ignored until the advent of feminist art criticism in the early 1970s They studied worked and exhibited with their male counterparts including Degas Manet Monet and Pissarro The entries provide extensive coverage of the careers critical reception exhibition history and growing reputations of these four female artists and discuss women Impressionists in general as they shared the challenges of becoming accepted as professional artists in late 19th century society Containing nearly 900 citations of manuscripts books articles reproductions films exhibitions and reviews this unique sourcebook will appeal to both art and women s studies scholars Each artist receives a biographical sketch chronology information about individual and group exhibitions and reviews and a primary and secondary bibliography which captures details about the artist s life career and relationship with other artists An art works index and names index complete the volume First Things Mary Jacobus, 2020-04-03 In First Things Mary Jacobus combines close readings with theoretical concerns in an examination of the many forms taken by the mythic or phantasmic mother in literary psychoanalytic and artistic representations She carefully explores the ways in which the maternal imaginary informs both unconscious processes and signifying practices at all levels Her fierce analysis of specific texts and paintings raises questions about the the symbolic and biological maternal body and how they relate to each other in literary and psychoanalytic terms The invocation of writings by Kleist Wollstonecraft Mary Shelley Malthus and de Sade along with analysis of French revolutionary iconography and Realist and Impressionist paintings by Eakins and Morisot make this wide ranging text a truly interdisciplinary study First Things

sees literary theory and psychoanalysis as mutually illuminating practices The work of Freud Klein Kristeva and Bion shape an inquiry into such topics as population discourse surrogate motherhood AIDS mastectomy and psychoanalysis itself In addition Jacobus elaborates on Freud's oedipal preconceptions Klein's missing theory of signs memory melancholia narcissism and maternal reverie Impressionistinnen Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco, 2008 Morisot's Modernism and Impressionist Art Claire Moran, 2025-09-29 This volume seeks to reframe French Impressionist painter Berthe Morisot 1841-95 in the history of art via a focus on the spaces and people that informed her work and thereby offers a new interpretation of Impressionism and of modernist aesthetics Claire Moran utilizes close visual analyses of artworks in particular those of family friends domestic servants and acquaintances textual analysis of Morisot's journals and letters investigation of late nineteenth century advice manuals magazines and advertisements in relation to Morisot's life and work examination of housing floor plans and gardens and the study of specific household objects that recur in her work and their history This multi-pronged method of analysis grounded in Morisot's lived experience will allow a new understanding of Morisot's art to emerge one with the potential to not only highlight the modernity of her aesthetics but also question both public and critical assumptions about Impressionism The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history gender studies French studies and history of design Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Art Mary M. Gedo, 1987-03 This new hardcover annual offers a unique scholarly format an interdisciplinary dialogue that it is hoped will foster the development of a sound useful methodology for applying psychoanalytic insight to art and artists The series provides a medium for those who study art those who interpret it and occasionally those who create it formally to explore the meaning of an artistic work as the direct reflection of the inner world of its creator Within each volume individual topics are addressed by either an art historian or a psychoanalyst with a response frequently tendered by an expert from the other field Reviews of important books of cross disciplinary interest are treated in a similar manner and include rebuttals by the authors themselves It is precisely this exchange of ideas among scholars with difference perspectives on the meaning of a work of art that sets PPA apart from the standard art history publication Its depth of scholarship coupled with its innovative format make it a fascinating addition to the burgeoning field of psychoanalytic studies of art history Ausstellungskünstler Oskar Bätschmann, 1997 Inside Impressionism Anne Rosseter Norcross, 1993 European Paintings of the 19th Century: Guigol-Wonder Cleveland Museum of Art, Louise d'. form of writing They reveal Val ry as one of the most radical and creative minds of the twentieth century encompassing a wide range of investigation into all spheres of human activity His work explores the arts the sciences philosophy history and politics investigating linguistic psychological and social issues all linked to the central questions relentlessly posed what is the human mind and how does it work what is the potential of thought and what are its limits But we encounter here too Val ry the writer exploratory fragmentary texts undermine the boundaries between analysis and creativity between theory and practice Neither journal nor diary eluding the traditional genres of writing the Notebooks offer lyrical passages writing of extreme beauty prose poems of extraordinary descriptive power alongside theoretical considerations of poetics ironic aphorisms and the most abstract kind of analysis The concerns and the insights that occupied Val ry s inner voyages over more than 50 years remain as relevant as ever for the contemporary reader for the Self that is his principal subject is at once singular and universal

Monet und Camille Claude Monet,Dorothee Hansen,Kunsthalle Bremen,2005 Mary Cassatt's Modern Woman Jennifer Grubbs Longshore,1997 Art Journal ,1960 Women's Studies Index ,1994 Innenleben Christoph Asendorf,1998 Betr Niklaus Stoecklin Atelier Hammerstrasse S 352 353 Painting in a World Transformed William H. Libaw,2005-10-31 This book shows how painting since the mid 1800s has reflected Western society s mixed feelings about the transformations in our world produced by science and technology Neither a chronicle of the development of modern art nor a history of the modern era it instead discusses how artists have represented feelings and ideas about the technological changes of modern times Some artists approach this task with an outward focus representing the world they perceive Others focus inward choosing to represent their personal reactions to that world The author examines both approaches to show how major art movements of the last two centuries are related to the largest ever changes in human knowledge An analysis of 28 works reveals perceptions of technological change as both blessing and curse The result of this analysis is a fresh view of the major artworks of the past century and a half along with intriguing insights into our own attitudes towards our world
