Glapka,2014-09-04 Bridal magazines have become increasingly popular in Western society proliferating the idea of a princess bride on her big day Yet little has been written on how the ever expanding wedding media and the popular wedding culture constructs gender and affects the ways women live and experience their weddings Offering a critique of contemporary wedding discourse this book marries together analyses of media texts and their reception to propose a new approach to media discourse The analysis richly illustrates how women are invited to embrace not only the stereotypical idea of bridal femininity but also a consumptive way of experiencing it Through examination of brides accounts of their big days the book observes the imprints of the popular gender imagery on their self portraits and self narratives and describes the women s diverse approaches to them Based on insights from gender and critical discourse studies sociology and audience research this exploration illuminates the ongoing debate on media and gender and its methodological approaches Learning and Cognition

The Short Story after Apartheid Graham K. Riach,2023-10-15 Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize The Short Story after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid's end. By focusing on the short story, this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies. Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra formal concerns, and these brief, fragmentary, elliptical, formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post-apartheid literature: the aesthetics of engaged writing, the politics of the past, class and race, the legacies of violence, and the struggle over the land. Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer, Ivan Vladislavić, Zo Wicomb, Phaswane Mpe, and Henrietta Rose Innes, this book assesses the place of the short story in post-apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought.

A Womanist Reading of Hebrew Bible Narratives as the Politics of Belonging from an Outsider Within Vanessa Lovelace, 2024-05-29. The U.S. Declaration of Independence of 1776 decreed that all men were created equal and were endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights. Yet U.S. born free and enslaved Black people were not recognized as citizens with equal protections under the law until the passage of the Fourteenth Amendment. Even then, White supremacists impeded the equal rights of Black people as citizens due to their beliefs in the inferiority of Black people and that America was a nation for White people. White supremacists turned to biblical passages to lend divine justification for their views. A Womanist Reading of Hebrew Bible Narratives as the Politics of Belonging from an Outsider Within analyzes select biblical narratives including Noah's curse in Genesis 9, Sarah and Hagar in Genesis 16 and 21, Mother in Israel in Judges 5, and Jezebel, Phoenician Princess and Queen of Israel in 1 and 2 Kings. This analysis demonstrates how these narratives were first used by ancient biblical writers to include some and exclude others as members of the nation of Israel and then appropriated by White supremacists in the antebellum era and the early twentieth century to do the same in America. The book analyzes the simultaneously intersecting and interconnecting dynamics among race, gender, class, and sexuality and biblical narratives to construct boundaries between us versus them, particularly the politicization of motherhood to deny certain groups inclusion.

Practical Theology Beyond the Empirical Turn Heather Walton, 2025-07-31. Practical Theology Beyond the Empirical Turn offers a sustained critical interrogation of the turn towards social research and methodologies in Practical Theology which has transformed the discipline over the past forty years. It places the discipline's current research practices within the context of wider theoretical and methodological developments and the climate disaster. The work maintains that current circumstances require a radical reassessment of the goals and processes of practical theological research and that artistic and creative methods must be part of this transformation. Heather Walton embodies her understanding of the vocation of the discipline in reflective and creative modes of expression. This work is essential reading for all those
