Perspectives In American History 1986:

Chinese America: History and Perspectives 1989 , Understanding the Founding Alan Ray Gibson,2007 Over the course of the last century scholars have furiously debated four questions concerning the Founders and their act of creation Were the Framers motivated by their economic interests How democratic was the Framers Constitution Should we interpret the Founding using philosophical or strictly historical approaches What traditions of political thought were most important to the Framers In Understanding the Founding The Crucial Questions Alan Gibson examines the preconceptions that scholars bring to these questions explores the deepest sources of scholars disagreements over them and suggests new and thoughtful lines of interpretation and inquiry Building on his previous work Interpreting the Founding which offers a synoptic overview of the competing perspectives that have informed modern scholarship on the Founders Writings on American History ,1987 Television Histories Gary R. Edgerton,Peter C. Rollins,2014-10-17 From Ken Burns s documentaries to historical dramas such as Roots from A E s Biography series to CNN television has become the primary source for historical information for tens of millions of Americans today Why has television become such a respected authority What falsehoods enter our collective memory as truths How is one to know what is real and what is imagined or ignored by producers directors or writers Gary Edgerton and Peter Rollins have collected a group of essays that answer these and many other questions The contributors examine the full spectrum of historical genres but also institutions such as the History Channel and production histories of such series as The Jack Benny Show which ran for fifteen years The authors explore the tensions between popular history and professional history and the tendency of some academics to declare the past off limits to nonscholars Several of them point to the tendency for television histories to embed current concerns and priorities within the past as in such popular shows as Quantum Leap and Dr Quinn Medicine Woman The result is an insightful portrayal of the power television possesses to influence our culture The Challenge of American History Louis P. Masur,1999-05-20 In The Challenge of American History Louis Masur brings together a sampling of recent scholarship to determine the key issues preoccupying historians of American history and to contemplate the discipline s direction for the future The fifteen summary essays included in this volume allow professional historians history teachers and students to grasp in a convenient and accessible form what historians have been writing about The Magazine of American History with Notes and Queries John Austin Stevens,Benjamin Franklin DeCosta,Henry Phelps Johnston,Martha Joanna Lamb,Nathan Gillett Pond,1892 Native Activism in Cold War America Daniel M.
