Perspectives On God Sociological Theological And Philosophical:

Perspectives on God Charles Curtis, Gerald Kreyche, Helmut Loiskandl, 1978
Curtis, Gerald F. Kreyche, Helmut Loiskandl, 1972 Social Science, Philosophy and Theology in Dialogue Pierpaolo Donati, Antonio Malo, Giulio Maspero, 2019-04-09 This volume explores the potential of employing a relational paradigm for the purposes of interdisciplinary exchange Bringing together scholars from the social sciences philosophy and theology it seeks to bridge the gap between subject areas by focusing on real phenomena Although these phenomena are studied by different disciplines the editors demonstrate that it is also possible to study them from a common relational perspective that connects the different languages theories and perspectives which characterize each discipline by going beyond their differences to the core of reality itself As an experimental collection that highlights the potential that exists for cross disciplinary work this volume will appeal to scholars across a range of field concerned with critical realist approaches to research collaborative work across subjects and the manner in which disciplines can offer one another new insights

Orthodoxy from an Empirical Perspective Mirko Blagojević, Dragan Todorović, 2011 God's Church-Community David Emerton, 2020-07-09 David Emerton argues that Dietrich Bonhoeffer's ecclesial thought breaks open a necessary third way in ecclesiological description between the Scylla of ethnographic ecclesiology and the Charybdis of dogmatic ecclesiology Building on a rigorous and provocative discussion of Bonhoeffer's thought Emerton establishes a programmatic theological grammar for any speech about the church Emerton argues that Bonhoeffer understands the church as a pneumatological and eschatological community in space and time and that his understanding is built on eschatological and pneumatological foundations These foundations in turn give rise to a unique methodological approach to ecclesiological description an approach that enables Bonhoeffer to proffer a genuinely theological account of the church in which both divine and human agency are held together through an account of God the Holy Spirit Emerton proposes that this approach is the perfect remedy for an endemic problem in contemporary accounts of the church that of attending either to the human empirical church community ethnographically or to the life of God dogmatically and to each problematically at the expense of the other This book will act as a clarion call towards genuinely theological ecclesiological speech which is allied to real ecclesial action science Is there a gap between Swedes in general and the perceptions of Swedish clergy The answer is based on sociological studies on science and religion in Sweden and the United States Furthermore the book contains a study of Swedish theologians from Nathan Soderblom to the present Archbishop Antje Jackelen and their shifting understanding of the relation between science and religion The philosophical aspects of this relation are given special consideration What models of the relation inform the contemporary scholarly discussion Are science and religion in conflict separate or in mutual creative interaction Religious Book Review ,1978 Social constructionism and theology [electronic resource] Chris A.
