Perspectives On Holocaust Restitution:

Holocaust Restitution Michael J. Bazyler, Roger P. Alford, 2006 Holocaust Restitution is the first volume to present the Holocaust restitution movement directly from the viewpoints of the various parties involved in the campaigns and settlements. Now that the Holocaust restitution claims are closed, this work enjoys the benefits of hindsight to provide a definitive assessment of the movement. From lawyers and State Department officials to survivors and heads of key institutes involved in the negotiations, the volume brings together the central players in the Holocaust restitution movement, both pro and con. The volume examines the claims against European banks and against Germany and Austria relating to forced labor insurance claims and looted art claims. It considers their significance, their legacy, and the moral issues involved in seeking and receiving restitution. Contributors: Roland Bank, Michael Berenbaum, Lee Boyd Thomas, Buerghenthal, Monica S. Dugot, Stuart E. Eizenstat, Eric Freedman, and Richard Weisberg, Si Frumkin, Peter Hayes, Kai Henning, Roman Kent, Lawrence Kill, and Linda Gerstel, Edward R. Korman, Otto Graf Lambsdorff, David A. Lash, and Mitchell A. Kamin, Hannah Lessing, and Fiorentina Azizi, Burt Neuborne, Owen C. Pell, Morris Ratner, and Caryn Becker, Shimon Samuels, E. Randol Schoenberg, William Z. Slany, Howard N. Stolen Nation Lena El-Malak, 2024-11-28 While Palestinians continue to face the threat of expulsion from their homes, identifying legal mechanisms that can be used to assert Palestinian's property rights is needed more than ever. This book provides a legal analysis of the right to reparation of Palestinian refugees under international law for the destruction and expropriation of their property during the Nakba. Discussing the legal landscape related to property ownership prior to the creation of the State of Israel and the legal basis for the right to reparation under international law, Lena El-Malak advocates for a law-based approach to enforce this right and the form it should take. The book demonstrates how the legal rights of Palestinian refugees, specifically as related to their properties, have been marginalized and excluded from the political discourse of the peace process. Here, the legal rights of Palestinian refugees are demonstrated, challenges for invoking these rights in international and domestic courts are determined, and forms of restitution and compensation are outlined. This study offers a timely contribution to provide a comprehensive legal, as opposed to a political, economic, or historical, analysis of the right to reparation of Palestinian refugees for their property losses. Additionally, the book seeks to demonstrate the importance of adopting a legal framework in any future negotiation for a peaceful resolution to this long-standing struggle for liberation. Historical Justice in International Perspective Manfred Berg, Bernd Schaefer, Bernd Schäfer, 2009 This book makes a valuable contribution to debates on redress for historical injustices by offering case studies from nine countries on five continents. The contributors examine the problems of material restitution, criminal justice, apologies, recognition, memory, and reconciliation in national contexts, as well as from a comparative perspective. Among the topics discussed are the claims for reparations for slavery in the United States West German restitution for the Holocaust the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission the efforts to prosecute the perpetrators of the Khmer Rouge s mass murders in Cambodia and the struggles of the indigenous people of Australia and New Zealand The book highlights the diversity of the ways societies have tried to right past wrongs as the demand for historical justice has become universal International Law & Trade Perspective ,2002 Paradigmenwechsel deutscher Geschichtspolitik und der "Antikapitalismus" der NPD. ,2008
