Perspectivesonline Journalism:

An Analysis of the Competing Business Models of Online Journalism Michael Fusco, 2010-06-29 From a small town paper in Pennsylvania to the largest international news network in the world the field of journalism has been revolutionized by the advent of new digital technologies Since the early 1990 s a new breed of reporting has emerged called online journalism which utilizes the latest technological tools After a very successful initial investment companies like CNN The New York Times and Tribune are beginning to seek new strategies for a profitable future From a variety of success stories emerges a single hybrid model that is set to once again change the way the publishing industry conducts business Author Michael Fusco explains how news rooms have overcome the initial hiccups of the transition to new medias and are now seeking to maximize profitability Michael Fusco is a graduate of Lehigh University holding a Bachelors of Arts degree in Journalism English and History

Global Journalism in Comparative Perspective Dhiman Chattopadhyay, 2024-02-13 This book explores how journalism is practiced around the world and how there are multiple factors at the structural and contextual level shaping journalism practice Drawing on case studies of how conflicts pandemics political developments or human rights violations are covered in an online first era the volume analyzes how journalism is conducted as a process in different parts of the world and how such knowledge can benefit today s globally connected journalist A global team of scholars and practicing journalists combine theoretical knowledge and empirically rich scholarship with real life experiences and case studies to offer a storehouse of knowledge on key aspects of international journalism Divided into four sections journalistic autonomy safety and freedom mis information crises and trust technology news flow and audiences and diversity marginalization and journalism education the volume examines both trends and patterns as well as cultural and geographical uniqueness that distinguish journalism in different parts of the world This volume will be of interest to students and scholars of journalism media studies and mass communication as well as practicing journalists who want to report globally and anyone interested in gaining a foundational understanding of or researching journalism practices around the world

Weibo News Package: a Systemic Functional Perspective on the Text-Reader Relationship Juan He, 2025-01-07 This book offers an academic dialogue between news values construction and readers evaluative response in Weibo news package from the interpersonal perspective The study focuses on the under researched field of news reception i e how the media reader relationship can be influenced by readers feedback By combing multimodal discourse analysis and corpus methods this book aims to address the following three research questions regarding the text reader relationship in Weibo news package 1 what are the gains and losses in the transfer of news values constructed across platforms and news media 2 how are Chinese language and emoji collaborated to realize attitudinal meanings and advance readers positions in news comments 3 how does readers response overlap or mismatch with particular news value in a story across news text reader relations reader reader relations and extra text reader relations The book has social theoretical and pedagogical implications for the changing landscape of Chinese news discourse and audience studies Socially the findings of news and comments analysis show that news value decisions can be negotiated due to readers active engagement via the social media commenting function Theoretically a responsive model of evaluative readings has been built for a better understanding of social media multimodal comments through the lens of reading positions and emoji text interactions The book is of interest to researchers in media and communication studies but can also be used as a reference book for under graduate students in social semiotics linguistics and journalism to learn how to analyze multimodal and interactive news texts on social media by triangulation of theories and methodologies Perspectives Kathleen Wickham,1998-01-01 Perspectives Arant,1999

Perspectives Ginger Rudeseal Carter,1999 Social Media and Political Participation: Unpacking the Role of Social Media in Contemporary Politics Tobias Eberwein,Pradeep Nair ,Cassian Scruggs Sparkes-Vian,2025-09-15 The rapid evolution of social media has transformed the landscape of contemporary politics and civil engagement Social media platforms such as Twitter Facebook Instagram TikTok WhatsApp and WeChat in addition to less censored platforms such as Redditt and Telegram among others have emerged as powerful tools for political mobilization civic engagement and the dissemination of political information Across the globe social media is used to express political opinions organize protests and mobilize support for various causes At the same time the emergence of social media has transformed the ways in which political figures connect with citizens communicate political messages and shape political narratives However social media has also been criticized for amplifying fake news and spreading divisive political messages This Research Topic seeks to examine the complex and multifaceted relationship between social media and political participation The aim is to generate new insights theories and methodologies that can help navigate the complexities and opportunities of the digital sphere

Cybermedia Go to War Ralph D. Berenger,2006 What impact is cyberspace having on the creation and distribution of news during war time Can the Internet be used to hold government more accountable Can it mobilize opposition to or support for a war These are some of the questions the editor and 33 other media scholars from around the world tackle in this book which is the sequel to the best selling companion volume Global Media Go to War 2004 Marquette Books

Online Journalism Ethics Cecilia Friend,Jane B. Singer,2007-07-12 Online media present both old and new ethical issues for journalists who must make decisions in an interactive instantaneous environment short on normative standards or guidelines This user friendly text guides prospective and professional journalists through ethical questions encountered only online Including real life examples and perspectives from online journalists in every chapter the book examines the issues of gathering information reporting interviewing and writing for mainstream news organizations on the Web It considers the ethical implications of linking interactivity verification transparency and Web advertising as well as the effects of convergence on newsrooms It also addresses the question of who is a journalist and what is journalism in an age when anyone can be a publisher Each chapter includes a complex case study that promotes critical thinking and classroom discussion about how to apply the ethical issues covered International Seminar Globalization, Social Cost and Benefits for the Third World, 2010 International News Flow Online Elad Segev, 2016 The book explores the theory of news flow around the world and analyses many of its dimensions such as the global standing of the United States the Middle Eastern conflicts as seen around the world and the effect of financial news In doing so the book unveils new patterns meanings and implications of international news on our perception of the world The Internet Handbook for Writers, Researchers, and Journalists Mary McGuire, 2000 Cyber Worship in Multifaith Perspectives Mohamed Taher, 2006-08-17 Cyber Worship in Multifaith Perspectives as is implied by its name explores worship i e Prayer Praise Scripture Sacrament Rituals Confessions Eucharist Rites Pilgrimages Reflection Contemplation etc on the Internet It is not an everything you need to know guide about the subjects of faith and belief religions online religions on the Net or religions in cyberspace Rather it is a book about religious and spiritual experience under the rubric cyber worship which is the variety of ways religious devotion is performed and carried out on the Internet The term Cyber Worship is a catchall phrase which includes variants such as online worship virtual worship electronic prayer cyber puja cyber synagogue and so on Dr Mohamed Taher has thus assembled a quick reference for two groups those communities that are involved in Cyber Worship and business Webs that collaborate in sustaining wired environments As such this book provides an interesting and current perspective on a practice that will continue to grow in the future A Dual Coding Theory Perspective on the Effectiveness of Multimedia Presentation Modes on Web News Sites David Weinstock, 2002 Math Tools for Journalists Kathleen Wickham, 2002 This is a concise guide to mathematics from a journalist s perspective The book explains basic mathematical concepts from multiplication to percentages to statistics with examples of how these concepts apply to journalism The Dynamics of Mass Communication Joseph R.
