Perverse Spectators:

Perverse Spectators Janet Staiger, 2000-07 The thesis of this collection of a dozen essays written by Staiger communication U of Texas Austin since Interpreting Films Studies in the Historical Reception of American Cinema 1992 is that contextual factors more than textual ones account for viewers' perverse i.e. negotiated experience of films The essays are organized by the themes of historical theory and reception studies interpretation and Hollywood film history interpretation and identity theory and interpretation and representation of the real Featured films are A Clockwork Orange The Silence of the Lambs and The Return of Martin Guerre c Book News Inc     The Bible in Motion Rhonda Burnette-Bletsch, 2016-09-12 This two part volume contains a comprehensive collection of original studies by well known scholars focusing on the Bible's wide ranging reception in world cinema It is organized into sections examining the rich cinematic afterlives of selected characters from the Hebrew Bible and New Testament considering issues of biblical reception across a wide array of film genres ranging from noir to anime featuring directors from Lee Chang dong to the Coen brothers whose body of work reveals an enduring fascination with biblical texts and motifs and offering topical essays on cinema's treatment of selected biblical themes e.g. lament apocalyptic particular interpretive lenses e.g. feminist interpretation queer theory and windows into biblical reception in a variety of world cinemas e.g. Indian Israeli and Third Cinema This handbook is intended for scholars of the Bible religion and film as well as for a wider general audience     Embodying Adaptation Christina Wilkins, 2022-08-04 This book explores the impact of the body on the mediation of character in adaptations Specifically it thinks about how identity is shaped by the body and how this alters meanings of adaptations With an increasingly digital world the importance of the body may be seen as diminishing However the book highlights the different political and social meanings the body signifies which in turn renders character Through a discussion of adaptations of sexuality race and mental difference the mediation of character is shown to be tied to the physical The book challenges the hierarchies in place both for the understanding of character which privileges the actor and in adaptations which privileges the original The discussion of the body character and adaptation asserts that the meanings the physical has in its shaping of and by character in adaptations reflect the way in which we position our own bodies in the world     The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory Edward Branigan, Warren Buckland, 2013-12-04 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an international reference work representing the essential ideas and concepts at the centre of film theory from the beginning of the twentieth century to the beginning of the twenty first When first encountering film theory students are often confronted with a dense interlocking set of texts full of arcane terminology inexact formulations sliding definitions and abstract generalities The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory challenges these first impressions by aiming to make film theory accessible and open to new readers Edward Branigan and Warren Buckland have commissioned over 50 scholars from around the globe to address the difficult formulations and propositions in each theory by reducing these difficult formulations to straightforward propositions

The result is a highly accessible volume that clearly defines and analyzes step by step many of the fundamental concepts in film theory ranging from familiar concepts such as Apparatus Gaze Genre and Identification to less well known and understood but equally important concepts such as Alain Badiou's Inaesthetics Gilles Deleuze's Time Image and Jean Luc Nancy's Evidence The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an ideal reference book for undergraduates of film studies as well as graduate students new to the discipline

by visual metaphors and what is its relation to illusion How is the spectator figured as entering the text and how does the image enter our world The film s spectator is integral to these concerns Cognitive and phenomenological approaches to perception alike claim that spectatorial affect is real even when it is film that produces it Central to the staging of intermediality in film tableaux moments in film also figure prominently in the book Films by Scorsese Greenaway Wenders and Kubrick are seen to address painterly photographic and digital images in relation to effects of the real Hitchcock s films are examined with regard to modernist and realist effects in painting Chapters on Fassbinder and Haneke analyze the significance of tableau for the body in pain while a final chapter on horror film explores the literalism of psychopathic tableau Here too art and the body images and the real are juxtaposed and entwined in a set of relations
