Perversions Of Love Among The Various Races:

A Cultural History of Race in the Age of Empire and Nation State Marina B. Mogilner, 2023-06-01 This volume covers the cultural history of race in the long 19th century the age of empire and nation state a transformative period during which a modern world had been forged and complex and hierarchical imperial formations were challenged by the emerging national norm The concept of race emerged as a dominant epistemology in the context of the conflicting entanglement of empire and nation as two alternative but quite compatible forms of social imaginary It penetrated all spheres of life under the novel conditions of the emerging mass culture and mass society and with the sanction of anthropocentric and positivistic science Allegedly primeval and parasocial race was seen as a uniquely stable constant in a society in flux amid transforming institutions economies and political regimes But contrary to this perception there was nothing stable or natural about race The spread of racializing social and political imagination only reinforced the need for constant renegotiation and readjustment of racial boundaries Therefore avoiding any structuralist simplifications this volume looks at specific imperial nationalizing and hybrid contexts framing the semantics and politics of race in the course of the long 19th century In different parts of the globalizing world various actors were applying their own notions of race to others and to themselves embracing it simultaneously as a language of othering and personal subjectivity Consequently the cultural history of race as told in this volume unfolds on many levels in multiple loci and in different genres thus reflecting the qualities of race as an omnipresent and all embracing discourse of the time

This Perversion Called Love Margherita Long, 2009-10-08 This Perversion Called Love positions one of Japan's most canonical and best translated 20th century authors at the center of contemporary debates in feminism Examining sexual perversion in Tanizaki's aesthetic essays cultural criticism cinema writings and short novels from the 1930s it argues that Tanizaki understands human subjectivity in remarkably Freudian terms but that he is much more critical than Freud about what it means for the possibility of love According to Tanizaki perversion involves not the proliferation of interesting gender positions but rather the tragic absence of even two sexes since femininity is only defined as man's absence supplement or complement In this fascinating work author Margherita Long reads Tanizaki with a theoretical complexity he demands but has seldom received As a critique of the historicist and gender focused paradigms that inform much recent work in Japanese literary and cultural studies This Perversion Called Love offers exciting new interpretations that should spark controversy in the fields of feminist theory and critical Asian studies

Pragmatism and the Problem of Race Bill E. Lawson, Donald F. Koch, 2004-04-21 A collection of essays examining a pragmatic approach to racism How should pragmatists respond to and contribute to the resolution of one of America's greatest and most enduring problems Given that the most important thinkers of the pragmatist movement Charles S Peirce William James John Dewey and George Herbert Mead said little about the problem of race how does their distinctly American way of thinking confront the hardship and brutality that characterizes the experience of many African Americans in this country In twelve thoughtful and provocative essays contemporary American pragmatists connect ideas with action and theory with practice to come to terms with this seemingly intractable problem Exploring themes such as racism and social change the value of the concept of race the role of education in ameliorating racism and the place of democracy in dealing with the tragedy of race the voices gathered in this volume consider how pragmatism can focus new attention on the problem of race Contributors are Michael Eldridge Eddie S Glaude Jr Judith M Green D Micah Hester Donald F Koch Bill E Lawson David E McClean Gregory F Pappas Scott L Pratt Alfred E Prettyman John R Shook Paul C Taylor and Cornel West Sex Perversions and Sex Crimes James Melvin Reinhardt,1957 Gender, Race, and Class in Media Bill Yousman,Lori Bindig Yousman,Gail Dines,Jean McMahan Humez,2020-07-24 Gender Race and Class in Media provides students a comprehensive and critical introduction to media studies by encouraging them to analyze their own media experiences and interests The book explores some of the most important forms of today s popular culture including the Internet social media television films music and advertising in three distinct but related areas of investigation the political economy of production textual analysis and audience response Multidisciplinary issues of power related to gender race and class are integrated into a wide range of articles examining the economic and cultural implications of mass media as institutions Reflecting the rapid evolution of the field the Sixth Edition includes 18 new readings that enhance the richness sophistication and diversity that characterizes contemporary media scholarship Included with this title The password protected Instructor Resource Site formally known as SAGE Edge offers access to all text specific resources including a test bank and editable chapter specific PowerPoint slides The Geography of Perversion Rudi Bleys,1996-07 Exploring the Western conceptualizations of non western patterns of same sex desire and the evolution of European attitudes to homosexuality this research particularly examines how the construction of sodomite identity was intertwined with essentialist definitions of so called racial identity Perversions of the Sex Instinct Albert Moll,1931 The Swedenborg Concordance John Faulkner Potts,1895 Autology David Henry Hamilton,1873 Gender, Race, and Class in Media Gail Dines,2003 Gender Race and Class in Media examines the mass media as economic and cultural institutions that shape our social identities Through analyses of popular mass media entertainment genres such as talk shows soap operas television sitcoms advertising and pornography students are invited to engage in critical mass media scholarship A comprehensive introductory section outlines the book s integrated approach to media studies which incorporates three distinct but related areas of investigation the political economy of production textual analysis and audience response The readings include a dozen new original essays edited for maximum accessibility The book provides A comprehensive critical introduction to Media Studies An analysis of race that is integrated into all chapters Articles on Cultural Studies that are accessible to undergraduates An extensive bibliography and section on media resources Expanded coverage of queer representations in mass media A new section on the violence debates A new section on the Internet Together with new section introductions these provide a comprehensive critical
