Pete Aguerberry Death Valley Prospector And Gold Miner:

Pete Aguerberry George Pipkin,1971 Death Valley and the Amargosa Richard E. Lingenfelter,1988-01-11 This is the history of Death Valley where that bitter stream the Amargosa dies It embraces the whole basin of the Amargosa from the Panamints to the Spring Mountains from the Palmettos to the Avawatz And it spans a century from the earliest recollections and the oldest records to that day in 1933 when much of the valley was finally set aside as a National Monument This is the story of an illusory land of the people it attracted and of the dreams and delusions they pursued the story of the metals in its mountains and the salts in its sinks of its desiccating heat and its revitalizing springs and of all the riches of its scenery and lore the story of Indians and horse thieves lost argonauts and lost mine hunters prospectors and promoters miners and millionaires stockholders and stock sharps homesteaders and hermits writers and tourists But mostly this is the story of the illusions the illusions of a shortcut to the gold diggings that lured the forty niners of inescapable deadliness that hung in the name they left behind of lost bonanzas that grew out of the few nuggets they found of immeasurable riches spread by hopeful prospectors and calculating con men and of impenetrable mysteries concocted by the likes of Scotty These and many lesser illusions are the heart of its history

Southern California's Best Ghost Towns Philip Varney,1994-03-01 The ghost towns of Southern California some dramatic and nearly intact others devastated are well worth visiting Most are remnants of once colorful mining towns though there are also railroad towns a World War II relocation center a promoter s swindle and a failed socialist colony Some excellent attractions remain One of the best preserved stamp mills in the West is in Skidoo Smelters homes stores and the remarkable wooden American Hotel can be found in Cerro Gordo which the author calls California s best true ghost town Seasoned back roads traveler Philip Varney who has visited nearly a hundred ghost towns in the area provides a down to earth and helpful guide to more than sixty of the best in Southern California and nearby Inyo and Kern counties He defines a ghost town as a town with a population markedly decreased from its peak one whose initial reason for settlement no longer keeps people there It can be completely deserted have a resident or two or retain genuine signs of vitality but Varney has eliminated those towns he considers either too populated or too empty of significant remains

The sites are grouped in four chapters in Inyo County Death Valley the Mojave Desert and Kern River and the regions surrounding Los Angeles and San Diego Each chapter provides a map of the region a ranking of sites as major secondary and minor information on road conditions trip suggestions and tips on the use of particular topographic maps for readers interested in more detailed exploration Each entry includes directions to a town a brief history of that town and notes on its special points of interest Current photographs provide a valuable record of the sometimes fragile sites Southern California s Best Ghost Towns will be welcomed both by those who enjoy traveling off the beaten path and by those who enjoy the history of the American West
