Itzkoff,2014-02-18 The Riveting Story Behind the Iconic Film Network and Its Prophetic Vision of Media Power and Society I m mad as hell and I m not going to take this anymore Those words spoken by an unhinged anchorman named Howard Beale the mad prophet of the airwaves took America by storm in 1976 when Network became a cultural sensation With a superb cast including Faye Dunaway William Holden Peter Finch and Robert Duvall directed by Sidney Lumet the film won four Academy Awards and indelibly shaped how we think about corporate and media power In Mad As Hell Dave Itzkoff of The New York Times recounts the surprising and dramatic story of how Network made it to the screen Such a movie rarely gets made any more one man s independent vision free from studio testing or market research And that man was Paddy Chayefsky the tough driven Oscar winning screenwriter whose outlandish vision is all too real today Itzkoff uses interviews with the cast and crew as well as Chayefsky s notes letters and drafts to re create the action in front of and behind the camera at a time of swirling cultural turmoil The result is a riveting account that enriches our appreciation of this prophetic and still startling film Itzkoff also speaks with today s leading broadcasters and filmmakers to assess Network s lasting impact on television and popular culture They testify to the enduring genius of Paddy Chayefsky who foresaw the future and whose life offers an unforgettable lesson about the true cost of self expression
