Peter Gzowski Reader:

A Peter Gzowski Reader Peter Gzowski, 2001 The man who affected the reading habits of millions of Canadians gives us the work of a lifetime Long before he became a radio voice Peter Gzowski was a writer This book is an anthology of his best writing over a career spanning more than 50 years starting with pieces from his time writing for The Varsity and his early days as a young reporter caught in a forest fire Each entry forms a new chapter and typically begins with an introduction from Peter Gzowski today setting it in context When he was a young writer at Maclean's in 1959 he did a piece on Gordie Howe which still stands up today In the same period he wrote articles on racism in Saskatchewan This Is Our Alabama and in 1961 a profile of an interesting young man named Trudeau Later we follow him into the world of his books with choice excerpts from his best work From his book on the Edmonton Oilers The Game of Our Lives for example there's his famous piece on skating and another much quoted passage on Wayne Gretzky Look for choice pieces from The Morningside Papers 1984/95 and three pieces from his autobiography The Private Voice and many pieces from here and there including Song for Canada which he wrote with Ian Tyson Above all look for exciting new work never before collected in book form including a thrilling account of sailing in Antigua in seas so high that the boat is dismasted at the mercy of the waves And there is a lovely piece about his earliest boyhood days growing up in what was then Galt and by contrast a look at Canada today This is a cornucopia of Gzowski selected by Peter himself that is a tasty blend of the personal and the objective and always good reading From the Hardcover edition Capitalism and Colonialism: The Making of Modern Canada 1890-1960 Bryan D. Palmer, 2025-09-02 This second volume of Bryan Palmer's history of Canada covers 1890 to 1960 Weaving together themes that include business labour politics and social history this account brings the experiences of Indigenous peoples into the centre of the narrative Canada experienced extraordinary growth during these decades notably after the Second World War when many Canadians quickly became far better off Yet vast inequalities persisted Indigenous peoples experienced ongoing and often worsening deprivation and ordinary people saw little or no real improvement in their lives These realities set the stage for the interplay of reform resistance and reaction that followed after 1960 Palmer examines the continuing role of capitalism and colonialism in structuring Canada in the period between 1890 and 1960 from capital's conflicts and fragile ententes with labour to the struggles of Indigenous Peoples and francophone Canada and the changing role of Canadian capital internationally Relying on the work of scholars who have produced a vast academic literature on a wide range of topics in Canadian history Bryan Palmer offers a new history of Canada which reflects the knowledge and values of 21st century Canadians Canada's 1960s Bryan D. Palmer, 2009-01-01 Focusing on the major movements and personalities of the time as well as the lasting influence of the period Canada's 1960s examines the legacy of this rebellious decade's impact on contemporary notions of Canadian identity On Six Continents James K. Bartleman, 2011-03-04 Muskoka the University of Western Ontario Ottawa New York Colombia Bangladesh Nicaragua Peru Cuba Israel Belgium South Africa Australia the place names tell the story of an amazing career Then there are the people involved Trudeau Clark and Chr tien Kissinger Castro Rabin Walesa Havel Mandela and dozens of others Not to mention the moments of high drama when young Jim Bartleman becomes Ottawa s security expert on terrorism during the FLQ crisis in 1970 or when he leads the movement to bring countries like Poland and Ukraine into NATO and the West But this is also a light hearted look at what our diplomats actually do and is full of funny stories so watch young Jim attend a drunken party with Trudeau compete with Mother Teresa for Bangladesh babies or sweep his Belgian bride off her feet to the altar Bartleman also writes candidly about falling prey to depression and about his concern as a native Canadian to see aboriginal peoples well treated In summary a richly varied career as the only Canadian diplomat to serve on all six continents well told by a remarkable character On Six Continents is a Douglas Gibson Book

Debating Dissent Lara A. Campbell, Dominique Clement, Gregory S. Kealey, 2012-10-09 Although the 1960s are overwhelmingly associated with student radicalism and the New Left most Canadians witnessed the decade s political economic and cultural turmoil from a different perspective Debating Dissent dispels the myths and stereotypes associated with the 1960s by examining what this era s transformations meant to diverse groups of Canadians and not only protestors youth or the white middle class With critical contributions from new and senior scholars Debating Dissent integrates traditional conceptions of the 1960s as a time apart within the broader framework of the long sixties and post 1945 Canada and places Canada within a local national an international context Cutting edge essays in social intellectual and political history reflect a range of historical interpretation and explore such diverse topics as narcotics the environment education workers Aboriginal and Black activism nationalism Quebec women and bilingualism Touching on the decade s biggest issues from changing cultural norms to the role of the state Debating Dissent critically examines ideas of generational change and the sixties

Discoveries Robertson Davies, 2002 On his publishers They are so insufferably pretentious in theory and such botchers in practice On his role as Master God how I loathe the young Do you suppose we were such grasping crooked self important cabbageheads as these On projected BBC radio talks They want me to give Marchbanks impressions of Britain They seem to have some notion that I am a newcomer to these shores chewing tobacco and swinging my lariat as I gape at the sights I shall strive to oblige Robertson Davies was 25 and a student at Oxford when these letters begin By the end of the book in 1975 he has become the magisterial author of the Deptford Trilogy Fifth Business The Manticore and World of Wonders The letters show us his career in all its variety He was among other things an actor at the Old Vic in London a newspaperman in Peterborough Ontario and a playwright who writes despairingly that I am getting to hate and despise actors more every day

A surprising theme is his constant disappointment with his achievements Although happily married with three daughters the editor of a respected newspaper a major national book reviewer and the author of several well received plays and half a dozen books he feels that he has failed Even when in 1961 he switches careers to become the founding Master of Massey College and to teach Drama at the University of Toronto his doubts persist It is only in the later years that he begins to sense that his life has not been wasted The book s greatest charm however lies in his letters to the great letters to H L Mencken Alfred Knopf Hugh Macleannan Tyrone Guthrie Margaret Laurence among others and to the not so great like the arrogant applicant for a job at his newspaper who received blistering advice on professionalism All are written with great style appropriate to the occasion For above all Robertson Davies was a professional His astonishingly revealing letters show a promising young man turning into a great literary figure Quill & Quire ,2010 Reader's Choice Kim Flachmann,1994
