Holocaust Mahnmal Berlin Hanno Rauterberg, H  l  ne Binet, 2005 Shoah Presence: Architectural

Representations of the Holocaust Eran Neuman, 2016-04-01 Through the analysis of several commemorative acts in space matter and image namely museums and memorials this book reflects on the ways in which architecture as a discipline a practice and a discourse represents the Holocaust In doing so it problematises how one presents an extreme historical case in a contemporary context and integrates the historical into actuality By examining several cases the book defines the issues faced by various architects who dealt with this topic and discusses their separate and distinctive approaches In each case it analyses the ways in which the cultural and political contexts of commemoration led to a different interpretation of the condition Focusing on the Ghetto Fighters House the world's first Holocaust museum Yad Vashem Israel's national Holocaust memorial in Jerusalem the US Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington and the Holocaust Memorial in Berlin the book discusses how the representation of history by architecture creates a dialectic process in which architecture mediates the past to the present while at the same time creating a present saturated with historical contexts It shows how together they are incorporated into one another and create a new reality past and present intertwined Disputed Memory Tea

Sindbæk Andersen, Barbara Törnquist-Plewa, 2016-06-20 The world wars genocides and extremist ideologies of the 20th century are remembered very differently across Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe resulting sometimes in fierce memory disputes This book investigates the complexity and contention of the layers of memory of the troubled 20th century in the region Written by an international group of scholars from a diversity of disciplines the chapters approach memory disputes in methodologically innovative ways studying representations and negotiations of disputed pasts in different media including monuments museum exhibitions individual and political discourse and electronic social media Analyzing memory disputes in various local national and transnational contexts the chapters demonstrate the political power and social impact of painful and disputed memories The book brings new insights into current memory disputes in Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe It contributes to the understanding of processes of memory transmission and negotiation across borders and cultures in Europe emphasizing the interconnectedness of memory with emotions mediation and politics
