No Medium Craig Dworkin, 2015-01-30 Close readings of ostensibly blank works from unprinted pages to silent music that point to a new understanding of media In No Medium Craig Dworkin looks at works that are blank erased clear or silent writing critically and substantively about works for which there would seem to be not only nothing to see but nothing to say Examined closely these ostensibly contentless works of art literature and music point to a new understanding of media and the limits of the artistic object Dworkin considers works predicated on blank sheets of paper from a fictional collection of poems in Jean Cocteau's Orph e to the actual publication of a ream of typing paper as a book of poetry he compares Robert Rauschenberg's Erased De Kooning Drawing to the artist Nick Thurston's erased copy of Maurice Blanchot's The Space of Literature in which only Thurston's marginalia were visible and he scrutinizes the sexual politics of photographic representation and the implications of obscured or obliterated subjects of photographs Reexamining the famous case of John Cage's 4 33 Dworkin links Cage's composition to Rauschenberg's White Paintings Ken Friedman's Zen for Record and Nam June Paik's Zen for Film and other works offering also a guide to further listening that surveys more than 100 scores and recordings of silent music Dworkin argues that we should understand media not as blank base things but as social events and that there is no medium understood in isolation but only and always a plurality of media interpretive activities taking place in socially inscribed space

Nietzsche in Hollywood Matthew Rukgaber,2022-09-01 Nietzsche in Hollywood offers a compelling and startling history of Hollywood film in which the German philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche and his idea of the bermensch looms large Though Nietzsche s philosophy was attacked as egoistic and a sociopathic version of Darwinism in films from the 1910s it undergoes a series of cinematic and philosophical transformations in the 1920s and 1930s under the eye and pen of some of the most significant names in early Hollywood including Erich von Stroheim Josef von Sternberg Ben Hecht Howard Hawks and Ernst Lubitsch In addition to establishing historical connections between Nietzsche s philosophy and these filmmakers the book provides philosophical readings of many Hollywood films through the lens of the Nietzschean ideas of perspectivism and the critique of morality Offering a new history of classic Hollywood films as well as a new approach to film philosophy Nietzsche in Hollywood reveals a reading of the philosopher in American culture that has largely been ignored
