Peter Pan Opikanoba:

Peter Pan's Shadows in the Literary Imagination Kirsten Stirling, 2011-12-21 This book is a literary analysis of J M Barrie's Peter Pan in all its different versions key rewritings dramatisations prequels and sequels and includes a synthesis of the main critical interpretations of the text over its history A comprehensive and intelligent study of the Peter Pan phenomenon this study discusses the book's complicated textual history exploring its origins in the Harlequinade theatrical tradition and British pantomime in the nineteenth century Stirling investigates potential textual and extra textual sources for Peter Pan the critical tendency to seek sources in Barrie's own biography and the proliferation of prequels and sequels aiming to explain contextualize or close off Barrie's exploration of the imagination The sources considered include Dave Barry and Ridley Pearson's Starcatchers trilogy Régis Loisel's six part Peter Pan graphic novel in French 1990 2004 Andrew Birkin's The Lost Boys series the films Hook 1991 Peter Pan 2003 and Finding Neverland 2004 and Geraldine McCaughrean's official sequel Peter Pan in Scarlet 2006 among others

Peter Pan Régis Loisel, 2006 Multimodal Comics Madeline B. Gangnes, Christopher Murray, Julia Round, 2024-03-13 Comics have always embraced a diversity of formats existing in complex relationships to other media and been dynamic in their response to new technologies and means of distribution This collection explores interactions between comics other media and technologies employing a wide range of theoretical and critical perspectives By focusing on key critical concepts within multimodality transmediality adaptation intertextuality and addressing multiple platforms and media digital analogue music prose linguistics graphics it expands and develops existing comics theory and also addresses multiple other media and disciplines Over the last decade Studies in Comics has been at the forefront of international research in comics This volume showcases some of the best research to appear in the journal In so doing it demonstrates the evolution of Comics Studies over the last decade and shows how this research field has engaged with various media and technologies in a continuously evolving artistic and production environment The theme of multimodality is particularly apt since media and technologies have changed significantly during this period The collection will thus give a view of the ways in which comics scholars have engaged with multimodality during a time when modes were continually changing

Peter Pan : [2. Opikanoba] Régis Loisel, 2002 The Enchanted Screen Jack Zipes, 2011-01-27 The Enchanted Screen The Unknown History of Fairy Tale Films offers readers a long overdue comprehensive look at the rich history of fairy tales and their influence on film complete with the inclusion of an extensive filmography compiled by the author With this book Jack Zipes not only looks at the extensive illustrious life of fairy tales and cinema but he also reminds us that decades before Walt Disney made his mark on the genre fairy tales were central to the birth of cinema as a medium as they offered cheap copyright free material that could easily engage audiences not only through their familiarity but also through their dazzling special effects Since the story of fairy tales on film stretches far beyond Disney this book therefore discusses a broad range of films silent English and non English animation live action puppetry woodcut montage Jim Henson

cartoon and digital Zipes thus gives his readers an in depth look into the special relationship between fairy tales and cinema and guides us through this vast array of films by tracing the adaptations of major fairy tales like Little Red Riding Hood Cinderella Snow White Peter Pan and many more from their earliest cinematic appearances to today Full of insight into some of our most beloved films and stories and boldly illustrated with numerous film stills The Enchanted Screen is essential reading for film buffs and fans of the fairy tale alike
