Ebook: Advertising and Promotion Belch, 2014-09-16 Ebook Advertising and Promotion Neighbourhood Structure and Health Promotion Christiane Stock, Anne Ellaway, 2013-04-06 It has long been theorized that people living in poor areas have more health problems than their more advantaged peers More recently science has been testing this hypothesis concentrating on the impact of the built environment on well being and its contribution to health inequities Neighbourhood Structure and Health Promotion offers sociology based theory and evidence based findings so readers may better understand the effects of place on health choices behaviour and outcomes This international volume analyzes the complex relationships among neighbourhood conditions and characteristics people s perceptions of where they live and their everyday health lives from eating habits and activity levels to smoking drinking and drug use Chapters introduce innovative methods for measuring and monitoring links between place and health in terms of risks and resources and employing objective and subjective data Prospects for engaging neighbourhoods in prevention efforts particularly involving young people and policy implications for the future of health promotion and inequity reduction are discussed as well Included in the coverage The spatiality of injustice area effects on behaviour Qualitative and quantitative methods for assessing neighbourhood health resources The potential of GIS and GPS in the health sciences Green spaces and health possibilities for research and policy School neighbourhoods and obesity prevention in youth Connecting gender social environment and health Neighbourhood Structure and Health Promotion advances the study of this increasingly critical topic making it a valuable reference for researchers practitioners policy makers and advanced students in health health promotion social epidemiology and urban planning

Marketing Michael R. Solomon, Greg W. Marshall, Elnora W. Stuart, Bradley R. Barnes, Vincent Wayne Mitchell, Wendy Tabrizi, 2019 Marketing Real People Real Decisions is the only text to introduce marketing from the perspective of real people who make real marketing decisions at leading companies everyday Timely relevant and dynamic this reader friendly text shows students how marketing concepts are implemented and what they really mean in the marketplace With this book the authors show how marketing can come alive when practiced by real people who make real choices The 3rd European edition presents more information than ever on the core issues every marketer needs to know including value analytics and metrics and ethical and sustainable marketing And with new examples and assessments the text helps students actively learn and retain chapter content so they know what s happening in the world of marketing today This edition features a large number of new cases from prominent marketing academics and professionals from around Europe A Transmedia Archaeology of Film Promotion Online Kim Walden, 2025-10-27 At a time when more films are released annually than there are days in the year films must compete for audience attention As a result promotional budgets have risen exponentially with online becoming the fastest growing sector Film websites don t just promote films they chronicle backstories map storyworlds introduce characters and provide spaces for audiences to congregate Yet as a hybrid of promotion storytelling and community hub these sites are ephemeral and when the promotional work is done they are often locked taken down and disappear without trace This book considers this emerging form Where have film websites been collected and archived What forms do these websites take And how do audiences engage with film websites Drawing on media archaeological methods as well as developing new strategies to investigate these intriguing media objects this book suggests that film websites are worthy of consideration as cultural artefacts in their own right In Beyond the Screen 2014 Sarah Atkinson describes film sites as new filmic objects and an unparalleled cultural form This book makes these new filmic objects its focus and sets out to discover more about them The Producers Guild of America s definition of transmedia practices extends to narrative commercial and marketing roll outs so one way these new filmic objects can be understood is as a kind of transmedia marketing However while there is no shortage of how to manuals on transmedia storytelling and transmedia marketing these practices remain under theorised in the literature So this is what this book sets out to do
