O'Brien, 2006-10-02. In this co-edited volume, women educators figuratively gather in the red tent, Diamant 1997, to share stories of the inseparability of what they do as mothers of daughters and grandmothers of granddaughters from their work as educators and social activists. By acting and speaking jointly and publicly about their varying projects of mothering and educating, this work celebrates mothers and daughters' strengths and the bonds between them. This work considers the mother-daughter bond through maternal storytelling or narrative and the Motherline. The narratives foreground the theory that a strong mother-daughter connection leads to empowerment and attempt to link that connection with education as grand-mother educators and their granddaughters weave their personal and professional lives into an ever-evolving tapestry. Drawing from a range of feminist theories in action, contributors to this volume offer stories of the Motherlines that illuminate the complexities of these powerful relationships. Using counter-narratives to patriarchal framings of family, this collection affirms the power of women educators telling and reading their stories as a means of self-discovery, empowerment and ultimately cultural transformation. Journal of Engineering Education, 2002.
