Sylvester Stallone: Born to Fight Fabricio Sales Silva, When I was born in Hell's Kitchen New York doctors had to use forceps for childbirth causing permanent damage to my face My mouth was crooked my speech compromised and that's how they started telling me that I could never act that no one would give someone like me a chance Since I was a child I have lived with mockery nicknames and the constant feeling of not belonging But it was precisely from this pain that I drew my greatest strength I learned early on that no one but me could decide who I would be Over the years I've had to make tough decisions facing fears that many prefer to avoid There were nights when I slept in the cold of the bus terminal hungry and with only a few coins in my pocket wondering if it was worth continuing I could have given up there I could have chosen the easy way out but I understood that no matter how much you fall what matters is the determination to get up again It's not about how much you hit but how much you can take a beating and move on What about you What fight are you waging now What challenges are trying to convince you that you're not strong enough Don't listen to those voices Don't let anyone convince you that you don't deserve what you want If something is important enough to you fight to the end Accept the pain embrace the defeats and use each failure as fuel to keep fighting Never forget that the only difference between falling and winning is your decision to get up again
